STREET FIGHTER II TURBO

SHOWDOWN!

Back in Volume 51, we asked you to tell us which Street Fighter you thought was the boddest of them all—and why! We knew that this question would draw numerous responses, so we took a tally of the votes. Chun Li and Ryu came out on top, but it was too close a race to call!

Ryu is the most well-rounded fighter. I asked 30 people this and 19 said "Ryu." The others picked Ken. The only thing different about them is the speed, and who's stronger.

Tony "SF II" Shiu
Memphis, TN

Every well-educated person should know that if you want results, choose Guile. He's the most versatile fighter and can destroy a fighter on the ground and in the air. Besides, you gotta love the hair!

Malcolm "Beat'em in a Day" Fine
Woodstock, NY

Chun Li is the best. Her best moves will defeat anyone and with the Kikoken, she is unstoppable!

Meredith Bernartz
Plymouth, CT

I've found that the flash-kicking Guile consistently wins the most fights, even though I personally prefer Chun Li. I can't wait to get SF II Turbo so I can CREAM Guile with Vega!

Ryan "Fighter" Holloway
Manassas, VA

Guile, Ryu and Ken are the most skilled World Warriors and consistently win more matches.

Sean Kelly
West Long Branch, NJ

Chun Li is by far the most skilled player. Her Lightning Kick is easy to do and is extremely effective. Her high-jumping makes it easy to avoid others' moves and easy to attack from above. The Whirlwind Kick will take any opponent by surprise—what more can I say?

Chun Li is THE choice!
Nari Mann
Austin, TX

Chun Li is the best street fighter. Her moves are some of the easiest to learn and she is unique, being the only woman fighter. Plus she's fighting for a good reason, to avenge her father. She's a strong fighter and can jump off the wall; an ability no other fighter has. Chun Li is awesome!

Lindsay Johnson
Middlesboro, KY

When our question was asked, SF II Turbo was just becoming available. Now, Vega can jump from the side wall with his excellent flying Wall Leap move.

Dhalsim is definitely the best. He's not only the thinnest, he can out-stretch his body and breathe fire.

Adam Grandmaison
Nashua, NH

Who is the best fighter? I don't care! I play against anyone with any player and I obliterate them. I like to use different players that are a challenge to use. A match with me using Chun Li or Blanka is over too soon with me victorious, as usual. So, try using different characters that you've never used before, and master them.

WWE SUMMER SLAM

CONTEST WINNER

Devin Kennedy, from Portland, Oregon, was selected as the lucky Grand Prize winner of the Player's Poll Contest from Volume 49: The Palace at Auburn Hills, just outside of Detroit, was the location for the WWE's SummerSlam. Televised on Pay-Per-View, the event drew thousands of pro wrestling fans and Devin brought along his mom, Donna, and his cousin, Ian Findley. Part of the prize package included meeting some of the pro wrestlers and playing WWE Royal Ivan and Devin challenged Razor Ramon to a wrestling match, but that isn't quite what he had in mind!

Rumble against them. Devin first got in the video ring with Razor Ramon and promptly proceeded to body slam the bruiser without mercy. Tatanka was Devin's next victim. The match was closer, but it was clear that Devin would again emerge from the ring victorious!

Devin took one of Razor Ramon in his time flat playing L.A.'s WWE Royal Rumble Super NES game! Fortunately, he took his defeat gracefully.

From the big screen to your home

This month Capcom brings the characters from last year's mega-hit movie to the Super NES in a six-stage, one-player action game that captures all of the magic of the legend. Follow Aladdin through the streets of Agrabah and to the Cave of Wonders to meet the Genie. Outstanding animation and excellent play control make it an entertaining game for players of all ages.

THIS LAMP ONCE CHANGED
THE COURSE OF A WOMAN'S LIFE...

According to the legend, Scheherazade, wife of an Arabian king, was sentenced by him to die at dawn, but she eluded death by telling the king a story every night and leaving the ending until the next morning. So eager was he to hear the ending that he allowed dawn to pass without the execution. Finally, after 1,001 nights—and 1,001 tales—the king granted her a reprieve, and thus were spun the tales of the Arabian Nights. Aladdin among them.

The video adventure begins with Jafar sending the ill-fated Gazem into the Cave of Wonders to retrieve the Magic Lamp. The cave, however, swallows him up, roaring that only one person would be allowed to enter. That one chosen person is "a diamond in the rough," a description that fits Aladdin well.

Jafar finds the cave but cannot enter

Parts of the movie (and who isn't?) will live like any the game captures the best of the big screen hit

You can call him Al

ALADDIN

The game's opening scene is just like the movie's: Aladdin runs through the streets, accompanied by Abu, stealing food as the merchants try to nab him. Poor but proud, he is the "Diamond in the Rough" who will one day enter the Cave of Wonders to pick up the Magic Lamp and free the Genie. He has fallen in love with Princess Jasmine, a captive girl he is destined to find. Also in the picture is the greedy vizier, Jafar, who covets the Magic Lamp. Aladdin's ultimate buddy takes him—and trusted companion, Abu—deep into the shadowy and mysterious Palace of Jafar.

ALADDIN

Young and adventuresome Aladdin has fallen for Princess Jasmine.

JASMINE

The beautiful princess falls for the "Diamond in the Rough."

JAFAR

The greedy Jafar turns kidnapper and holds Jasmine hostage.

THE GENIE

The Genie who inhabits the lamp grants Aladdin's wishes.

ABU

Where Aladdin goes, Abu follows. He is a trusted but unobedient companion.

THE SULTAN

Following the law of the land, he forbids his daughter to marry a commoner.

Animated Al

Unusually smooth, detailed animation brings Aladdin to life, and he has a variety of great moves that are fun to use. The play control is excellent. He can jump and make fingertip grabs to land on distant ledges. He also runs at different speeds and stops on a dime.

FLIP KICK

Press B when you're next to an enemy to make Aladdin knock it out by doing a handspring off its head.

THE GLIDE

Press B while in the air to make the rug pop out like a parachute. Control the glide with R and L.

HANG TIME

If you jump toward a ledge, Aladdin will automatically grab it if he's close enough.

FRUIT TOSS

Every Apple Aladdin picks up adds ten to his supply. Press the A button to throw Apples at enemies.

The Marketplace

The game begins on the streets of the mysterious city of Agrabah. Aladdin runs through the Marketplace, stealing whatever food he can find. At his side is his mischievous monkey pal, Abu. The pair tries to stay one step ahead of trouble, but guards are posted along the way. Aladdin can hop them with a somersault kick or stun them with the Apples he finds in Jars.

STEP RIGHT UP

Watch the windows when you're in the Marketplace. Sometimes men stick their heads out to see what's going on in the street. Time jumps as you can bounce off their heads to reach areas high above.

STAGE 1-1

START

AIR TIME

Use the Bug also to avoid enemies. You don't gain anything from fighting, so if you fly overhead you can avoid potential injuries.

APPLE TOSS

The safest way to make it through the Marketplace is to throw Apples at one man at a time as they stroll onto the screen. Apple eaters won't wave them off, but they will stop the enemies long enough for you to land somersault kicks.

1-UP LAMP

If you rush by here, you'll miss out on a 1-Up Lamp. Instead of jumping over to the next roof, step off the right edge of the building and use the Bug to glide over to the Lamp, then swing off the pipe over to the next building.

1-UP

STAGE 1-3

TRAMPOLINE

At the beginning of Scene 1-3, empty the Jar, jump up to the ledge, then leap over to the whole moving on the right. It will flip you to the roof, and you can grab the Lamp on your way up.

PLATFORMS

These platforms swing back and forth. To pick up the Gems, hang off the edge. Jump to the next one when it comes into view.

RUG RIDE

Although it looks kind of like a roll of paper, this is the flag that you use to guide through the air. Jump and press the R Button to use it. It's easy to control, so it makes picking up Gems a piece of cake.

MAGIC LAMP

Pull yourself up to the third ledge to snag the 1-Up Lamp. It automatically adds another life to your meter. You'll often find the Lamps in hard-to-reach places or spots that aren't visible.

ALADDIN

TO 1-2

HEART

The red Orb in the Treasure Chest instantly adds a Heart to your energy meter.

TO 1-3

BONUS SCARAB

BREAK TIME!

Several Treasure Chests in the game hold Scarabs. If you open the chest and lose the Scarab and catch it, the Scarab will show up at the end of the stage and let you play the Bonus Game. You might win extra Hearts, Lives or Continues.

ON THE ROPES

Aladdin pulls a sick trick in this game. After leading the enemy with the bow and arrow, jump up and grab the cloth that's hanging over the rope above. You'll slide down the rope over the gap and land the enemy at the end. Hop up the ledges on the right to repeat the move on the second rope.

TO 1-4

SWINGIN'

Another way to beat up the bad guys is to hang from the wall pegs and kick them as you swing forward. One kick is all it takes to get rid of them, and they'll often walk right into you.

STOP THE SCIMITAR

A big bully with a scimitar is looming. Jasmine stands either to the left of the scimitar or on top of the tent with Abu. Wait until he swings his sword behind his head, then jump before he drops it down. He'll fly into a rage after you hit him. As soon as he stops, jump again.

The Cave of Wonders

After escaping from Agrabah with Jasmine, Aladdin is seized by her father's guards and imprisoned in the palace dungeon. There he is approached by an old man who promises to free him if he will retrieve the treasure from the Cave of Wonders. Not knowing that the old man is actually Jafar in disguise, Aladdin quickly agrees and departs for the cave, eager to be free.

STAGE 2-1

GATHER GEMS

You can either throw apples at the chandeliers to break off their tips or swing across to the other side breaking them off as you go. Once the tips have fallen, you can jump onto them to grab the Gems.

START

BAT TRICK

Bounce off the Bat to fly high enough to reach the red Gem.

HANG ON

Grab the rope and hang on until the stone gate retreats. Drop onto the next raft and load on its right side to go under the gate.

MAGIC CARPET RIDE

Now you can do more than watch the Flying Carpet—you'll help on and ride it through this fast-scrolling stage. Direct the Carpet up and down to avoid the ceiling and waves of lava that rise and fall but keep moving. If you slow down, the lava will reach you off the Carpet.

GET A LIFE

Use the Bat here to spring up to the ledge on the left. Then swing across to the 1-Up Lamp on the right ledge. If you miss the first time you try bouncing off the Bat, swing back to the left a couple of screens. When you start, another Bat will appear.

MEET THE MAGIC CARPET

When you reach the end of Stage 2-1, Abu tells you to jump off the ledge. You'll land in the sandy cave below. Walk to the right, avoiding the skeletons that emerge from the sand, until you find the Magic Carpet.

ALADDIN

ADD A HEART

Don't miss out on an extra Heart. Diny dove through either the gap or the next one and land on a raft. Ride the raft all the way to the right, pick up the Heart, then skip over the raft to the stairs that lead back up to the wall.

STONES

If you break too many great stone traps and roll towards you, Abu can either jump them or knock all the edge of the ledges and let them roll by overhead.

DOUBLE JUMP

It's hard to make the quick jumps from ground to ground here. If you use the Rag, you can slow things down and land more precisely.

1-UP

A Bat flies in quickly from the right here. Either jump off the ledge to catch it or knock quickly and prepare to throw an Apple at it.

LEVEL OFF

Steady as she goes! Level off here and stay tight to the ceiling to avoid the rising tide of lava. There's a long way yet to go—don't lose it here.

TO A

TO 3-1

TO 3-2

Inside the Genie's Lamp

Aladdin is in for a real adventure when the Genie invites him into his Lamp. Inside, he finds a fanciful world with hilly clouds and hobbling balloons. The Genie, all decked out in his finest tux, appears suddenly from time to time to help Aladdin get through tough spots. There are few enemies to avoid, so this stage is one of the easier ones to complete.

START

STAGE

4-1

BALLOON BOP

Watch for balloons to rise from the gaps and use them to slip across to the right. You can also grab the rings on the Balloon rings and hang from them.

FLY HIGH

Time it right. If you jump on the balloons before it's high enough you'll fall into the gap. If you wait too long, you'll be impaled on the ceiling spikes.

STAGE

4-2

START

STAGE

SPRING UP

This is the first vertically scrolling stage in the game. In the lower portion, avoid the tongues snake out from the walls. Jump from tongue to tongue before they retract back into the wall. In the upper area, bounce on the springs to get a lift as you avoid the flying pills.

MORE TO COME

The remainder of Stage 3 takes Aladdin through the rest of the Genie's Lamp. Don't rest on the beach with fate. They begin to drop as soon as you land on them. There are also several pills on the walls to avoid.

GENIE'S HELPING HAND

When you reach this point, there are no more ledges to jump to. Pause at the edge and wait for the Genie to show up with his magic wand. He'll conjure up some clouds to catch you so you can step across to the next platform.

SWING TIME

When you jump from this point, it's a little bit difficult to tell where you're supposed to go next. There are pegs at the bottom of cables on the right. Take a jump and swing from one to the next and then to the end of the stage.

SOMERSAULTS

Timing is critical here. The jumps aren't very far apart, but the landing platforms are about the size of porcheads, so you'll have to somersaults have place to place. You have to wait for a full moon to appear to make the last jump.

BREAK THE POT

Before you jump over to the pegs, smash the flying pot so it won't knock you out of the air before you can get hold of the peg.

THE LATER STAGES

There are three more stages to complete before Aladdin's adventure draws to a close. When he leaves the Genie's Lamp, Aladdin learns that Abu has gotten himself lost in an ancient Pyramid. He can't leave his pal on his time of need, so he traces his path to find him.

THE PYRAMID

The Pyramid is an ancient and mysterious mist. Slipping, sliding waves of sand make the footing unstable and birds quickly emerge from the sand to attack. In some areas, Aladdin must swing from crawling chains to reach safety. Where does his handy Genie find his treasures? Aladdin's in the Treasure Room, of course.

JAFAR'S PALACE

When Jafar takes the Magic Lamp and Jasmine, Aladdin has no choice: he must enter Jafar's Palace to save his sweetheart and recover the Lamp. The palace is packed with bewitching guests and evil potent spells. When he finally does track Jafar down, he's in for the fight of his life.

THE BONUS STAGE

Before returning to Agrabah, Aladdin becomes a prince by way of a wish, and he and Jasmine take a wonderful flight aboard the Flying Carpet. Here, they collect as many gems as they can as the beautiful city scenes scroll by in the background.

Stanley Cup

Quest for the Stanley Cup!

The quest to win the Grail of professional ice hockey, the Stanley Cup, begins again in NHL Stanley Cup from Nintendo!

© 1993 Nintendo Software. Licensed exclusively to Nintendo. The NHL, NHL, team names and logos and Stanley Cup are trademarks of NHL, Sportsman, Inc. © NHL, 1993. The Nintendo Video Game is an Officially Licensed Product of the National Hockey League.

Live the Season!

What's it like to play 84 grueling, physically demanding, full-contact, high-speed games of hockey in a year? NHL Stanley Cup puts you on the ice, in the player's skates, so you can find out! The only hockey game that uses Mode 7 to create a full 360 degree view of the rink, NHL Stanley Cup is about as close as you can get to actually being there. You'll make the same decisions a real NHL hockey player does; take the same shots, make the same passes, set up the same plays, and give (and take) the same thunderous hits! NHL Stanley Cup is a full feature hockey game with loads of options. You can play against another player or the computer in a full season or single exhibition game. However you play, the on ice action has never been faster or more challenging!

NHL STANLEY CUP VERSUS...

How does NHL Stanley Cup stack up against the recent crop of video hockey games? Let's take a look.

Brett Hull

Accolade's Brett Hull Hockey game has real player names, but no NHL licenses. If Hull's voice with the play-by-play is real, those graphics are a little small.

OPTIONS

INSTANT REPLAY

With the puck reaching speeds of 100 miles per hour, blink and you might miss some action! Use the instant replay feature to review all your great goals, sweet passes and awesome body checks!

LINE CHANGES

You can substitute different "lines," or teams of players, as your guys get tired. Changing your lines strategically becomes important when you play a full game with grueling 20 minute periods.

TECH TALK

SKATE AND SCROLL

Mode 7 has been used very effectively in NHL Stanley Cup to provide a realistic view of the hockey rink. On this 3-D rink, the action can rotate and scroll to show the view from any possible position, as if you were actually there!

It's as close to virtual hockey reality as you're going to get!

From the blue line to behind the net, the viewpoint changes to show you what an actual player would see.

SPORTSCASTER STAT REPORT

Between periods, and after the game, the Nintendo Sportscaster will wrap up the stats. In the full season mode, your stats will be saved over the course of the 84 games, and into the playoffs, if you make it!

REALISTICALLY RENDERED PLAYERS!

To create the large, detailed, and realistic players in NHL Stanley Cup, the developers of the game, Sculptured Software, used footage of actual hockey players to guide their designers. The artists took frames from the film and duplicated them in a computer paint program. The result is super realistic animation!

The technique of using actual footage is a guide to animation is also used by some cartoon studios.

Players from the International Hockey League's Salt Lake Golden Eagles were filmed as models for the players.

PENALTIES

The penalties of real NHL ice hockey are here: roughing, high-sticking, cross checking, and many more. If the refs catch you playing dirty, be prepared to spend some time in the penalty box!

Super Slap Shot

Virgin's Super Slap Shot has lots of stats, but no real players or teams. The action and player art are cartoon-like.

NHL '94

Electronic Art's newest incarnation in their hockey series has both real players and NHL teams. Game play is much the same as previous versions: small players and no full season.

COACH'S PLAY

SLAP SHOT

The slap shot is fast and powerful, but takes a little time to set up. Players' accuracy with the slap shot may vary. The best slap shot in the game belongs to St. Louis Blues #16.

WRIST SHOT

Fast and accurate, the wrist shot is best used as close to the net as possible. Scoring wizards like Buffalo #89 and Pittsburgh #66 are the best with this shot.

BREAKAWAY!

The most exciting play in hockey is the breakaway, where a single player goes up against the opposing goalie. Don't hit a player who has an open course to the goal!

HOCKEY
HINTS

Each team has at least one "star" player. Among the best are Pittsburgh #66, Toronto #93, Buffalo #89 and Detroit #19.

BOOK: OFFENSE

CENTER THE PUCK!

A standard play in hockey is to carry the puck down the side of the rink, and then attempt to pass it to a player in the center of the rink, in front of the goal, for a shot.

PASS IT BACK

If there isn't an open path into the opposing team's zone, pass the puck back and take another look at the play. Taking the puck through traffic is a good way to lose it.

TAKE HIGH PERCENTAGE SHOTS!

Shooting straight at the goalie is usually not a good idea, as the puck will just bounce off his pads. Try shooting from an angle and use the Control Pad to aim the puck.

HOCKEY HINTS

The best goalies in the game are Montreal #33, Pittsburgh #35 and Chicago #30. If you score against them, consider yourself a pro!

COACH'S CORN

HIP CHECK

The hip check is aimed at throwing your opponent for a spill on the ice. Although it's a little more difficult to do than a shoulder check, it is very powerful!

SHOULDER CHECK

A well-placed shoulder check will send the puck handler sprawling onto the ice. It can also send you to the penalty box! Use the shoulder check sparingly to avoid penalties!

POKE CHECK

The best way to steal the puck from an opponent is to use this stick check. Once the puck is loose, chase it down and take possession!

HOCKEY HINTS

If you are down a man because of a penalty you won't be called for icing.

ER: DEFENSE

DON'T PLAY CATCH-UP!

As soon as your opponent gets the puck, think about setting up your defense! Press the A Button to gain control of the defender and meet the puck handler as he enters your zone.

DUMP THE PUCK!

Press the X Button to dump the puck in the direction you are facing. Use this to waste time off the clock or wear down your opponent. This isn't a good shot unless the goal is empty.

GOALIE CHALLENGE!

It can be risky to take manual control of your goalie. On a break-away, however, you can bring the goalie out to challenge the attacking player and knock him out before he takes his shot.

Press the A Button to take as the defender the puck to win the face off.

Some players are better at the face off than others.

ClayFighter™

1993 Interplay Productions
1993 Visual Concepts

Coined from a cesspool of radioactive clay, the remnants of a huge meteor form a cast of hilarious malleable characters—the Clay Fighters! The meteor struck right in the heart of Playland, once a thriving circus and amusement park. Now known as Clayland, the park apparently isn't big enough for all of the comical Clay Fighters. Interplay's game is actually a breath of fresh air amidst the recent onslaught of street fighting games. Each comical character has the ability to make you laugh and your opponent cry in his or her own special way!

WILD!

WEIRD!!

WACKY!!!

CLAYLAND

CLAY FIGHTER

Muddville's Playland was instantaneously transformed into Clayland when the suspicious purple meteor struck and contaminated the whole place with toxic goo and clay devastation. The place went from being an out-of-business amusement park to an out-of-business amusement park with clay figures beating up on one another! Each fighter has staked out his or her own claim on Clayland and has built it up to suit his or her own needs. There's no telling who will wind up claiming all of the sections of Clayland. It will remain a mystery until you decide the outcome!

FIGHTING FUNCTIONS

Most street fighting games have an option that allows you to rearrange the Controller functions. The configuration outlined on the diagrams to the right is our recommended setup for maximum playing efficiency. The most important thing to remember is to use the configuration that works best for you. Experiment!

LIMBS OF CLAY

The Kicks and Punches that the Clay Fighters throw range from Quick to Brutal. Quick Kicks and Punches won't do much damage, but because they are quick, you can land several in a short period of time. Brutal Kicks and Punches do the most damage, but can not be thrown repeatedly.

CLOSE ATTACKS

Close attacks vary slightly from normal kicking and punching attack moves. The combinations of moves that you can put together at close range differs too. At first glance, it may look like the larger fighters may have an unfair advantage over some of the smaller fighters. This is not necessarily true. All of the fighters are fairly evenly matched at the aspect of damage they can dish out at close range.

CLAY TOSSES

Throws, or throw moves, vary from one fighter to the next. Most fighters have the ability to do a throw move, but it depends on the situation that they find themselves in. Throw moves require that you be near your rival. If you can't reach him, you can't throw him. To experiment with these types of attacks, you may want to choose the Mr. Mole and fight against a rival that has no one controlling the character.

CLAY SHAPING

Hold moves are similar to throw moves in the fact that you have to be close to your opponent to pull them off. When you grab your rival, try to squeeze the clay right out of their plastic playthings. Most of the moves are very funny to watch. The Kick's hold move squeezes his opponent inside his body and squeezes him that way. Barker pays tribute to the Three Stooges and delivers repetitive eye pokes.

BAD MR. FROSTY

If Bad Mr. Frosty has his way and wins the Clay Fighter tournament, things will get mighty chilly around Clayland. He thrives in sub-zero temperatures. The colder the better. He's bad, he's cool, he's no one's fool. And he shows no mercy whatsoever in battle. Bad M.F. has more bulk than the average Clay Fighter, but that doesn't seem to slow him down!

LIKES: Snow
HATES: Fire
WANTS: Winter
JOB: Snowplow

SNOW BALL

Press Away from your opponent for about two seconds and then press Forward plus any of the Punch Buttons to do the Snow Ball move.

SHOULDER CHARGE

The Shoulder Charge is executed the same way as the Snow Ball attack but doesn't hold Away for two seconds. It's a very quick move!

SNOW SLIDE

Press Down, Down/Forward and then Forward plus any Kick Button to quickly slide into or under your shape-shifting rival. Score a hit!

TAFY

Tafy resembles Gumby in many ways. If any of the Clay Fighters knows how to elongate their elastic limbs to increase their fighting efficiency, it's Tafy. Although very thin and rather unassuming in stature, Tafy has some fierce moves and will more than likely be a top contender for the King of the Circus title.

TAFY WHACK PUNCH

Tap Away twice then press Forward plus any Punch Button for the Tuffy Whack. This move has surprising power and moves quite fast.

LIKES: Donuts
HATES: Donuts
WANTS: Candy
JOB: Candyman
MOTTO: "Stretch"

CRUNCH PUNCH

Press the Control Pad Away for two seconds and then press Forward plus any Punch Button to execute a long double punch attack. If done right your opponent will be sandwiched by the upper and lower punches.

FROZEN FIST

To execute the Frozen Fist special attack, move just like the Snow Slide, but end up pressing a Punch Button instead of a Kick Button.

CLAY FIGHTER

TINY

iny prides himself on being very muscular. We think it's just creative clay placement, though. Either way, Tiny is certainly a force to be reckoned with. His moves, while somewhat limited in comparison to other fighters, are very powerful. Tiny's ability to come from behind and win is legendary with the Clay Fighting elite.

LINES: Gah!
HATES: Wings
WANTS: Fights
JOB: Hacking

COLISEUM

SUCKER PUNCH

A long left jab will occur if you press Down, Down-Foward and then Foward plus any Punch Button. Reverse the motion for a right jab.

QUICK PUNCH LEAP

Any crouching character can perform this move if you press Up/Foward plus Quick Punch. You can use this move to counter special attacks.

TAFFY WHACK KICK

The Taffy Whack can also be used with a Kick instead of a Punch. Use one or the other depending on your current battle situation.

TAFFY TORNADO

Wind him up and watch him go! Press Away and then roll the Control Pad down and Foward your opponent and press any Punch Button.

MEDICINE BALL

Depending on which Punch Button is pressed, the Medicine Ball spins toward your rival if you press Away and then Foward plus Punch.

FLYING MEDICINE BALL

A Medicine Ball of a different variety occurs after you press and hold Forward for two seconds and then press Up plus any Kick Button.

BLUE SUEDE GOO

HUMMING ATTACK

The Humming Attack sends a deadly musical note flying toward your opponent! Press Down, Down/Toward and Up and press any Punch Button.

BELLY BUCK

At close range, Blue Suede Goo can thrust his guitar belly toward his opponent if you press the Button designated as Medium Kick.

BOY

P

layland's resident ghost also inherited the supernatural powers of clay when the meteor hit. Now Clayland's ethereal spook is scaring the daylights out of his rival Clay Fighters. Equipped with only a ragged sheet and a jack-o-lantern head, Ickybood Clay fights for the undead.

HAUNTED HOUSE

ECTO PUNCH

Ickybood's powerful punch is executed by pressing Down, Down then Down/Toward and any Punch Button. Use it against ghoulish attacks.

TELEPORT

Ickybood's Teleport is a good move to use to avoid an attack. With our recommended Controller configuration: Press Down then Y plus B to move right. Press Down then L plus B or Y plus A to move left.

ROCK 'N ROLL THROW

Another move only possible at close range. Bob's throw move can be accomplished by moving in and pressing the Round Kick Button.

ECTO BALL

His powers blaring, Ichibei unleashes a ball of ectoplasmic energy if you press Down/Forward then Forward plus any Punch Button.

PUMPKIN BUTT

A dynamic move, Ichibei's moves head first toward his rival if you press Away for two seconds then press Forward plus any Punch Button.

BLOB

CLAY FIGHTER

P

urely evil and highly intelligent, Blob believes that he (it) is the true essence of clay and therefore knows that he will eventually emerge as the King of the Circus. Unbeknownst to him, he's really made up of the remnants, dregs if you will, that were left over from the meteor. Obviously, the versatile go-jitsu fighting technique fits him very well. Blob can take on many shapes.

LIKES: Clay
HATES: Hiss
WANTS: Clay
JOB: Claymaker
MOJO: "Daancl!"

CLAY SPIT

"Phoo!" Press Down/Down/Forward and then Forward plus any Punch Button to make Blob hark a large ball of clay toward his rival.

CLAY BLADE

Two one-hits! Pressing Away for two seconds and then pressing Forward plus any Punch Button causes Blob to assume the shape of a saw blade and slice toward his rival. This move often sends multiple hits and should be used often.

ROLLING CLAY PUNCH

Blob can coil himself up, spring forward and score several hits if you press Down/Down/Away and Away plus any Punch Button. The Rolling Clay Punch is best used if your opponent is stunned and is positioned against the side wall.

BLOB'S WORLD

CLAY STOMP

Taking the form of a giant foot, Blob kicks clay if you press Down plus Street Kick. You can score two hits if you're close enough.

BONKER

B

onker was once a friendly circus clown, but when the meteor hit, he was caught by the blast of clay and was transformed into a Clay Fighter. He couldn't bring himself to leave Playland, even after it had gone out of business. Ultra-confident, Bonker uses the same clown tricks that used to make people laugh to fight off the other clay combatants. Bonker is a very "active" fighter. He is quick and uses many different moves.

FLYING PIE

Press Down, Down/Toward and then Toward plus any Punch Button for the Flying Pie move. A clay pie will be hurled at your opponent.

This move is best applied just as your opponent is descending from a jump so they won't be able to avoid the attack.

CUTTING CARTWHEEL

Press Away for two seconds and then press Toward plus any Punch Button to make Bonker spin toward his rival in cartwheel fashion.

BONKER BUMP

If you are under attack while descending from a jump, press Up plus any Kick Button to make Bonker jump again before landing.

HATES: Crying
WANTS: Eucalyptus

HELGA

T

he title of Valkyrie was given to Helga by the Norse god Odin. Valkyrie designates a maiden who transports souls of slain warriors to Valhalla. Heck with that! Helga has her own mission: to slay some major clay! A warrior of the robust variety, Helga loves to use her impressive girth, especially during her Valkyrie Ride attack.

More pounds equal more power. This certainly ties into Helga's motto!

LIKES: Pies
HATES: Salsa
WANTS: Cookies

MOTTO: "Eat!"

VIKING RAM

Pressing Down, Down/Toward and then Toward plus any Punch Button causes Helga to fly into the air and spin as if she's a pig on a spit. Her spiked helmet does damage as she crashes into her rival.

VALKYRIE RIDE

Hold Away for two seconds, roll the Control Pad down and around Toward your rival and press any Kick Button to do the Valkyrie Ride.

SPINNING PIE

A variation of the Flying Pie attack, the Spinning Pie move sends a clay middle flying toward Borker's outstretched rear at a level near the end of the wave, press any Kick Button at the end of the Controller motion

SINGING ATTACK

This move is just like the Rollaway Ride, but instead of a Punch Button press any Kick Button at the end of the Controller motion

ELBOW DROP

Press Down, Down/Toward and then Toward plus any of the Kick Buttons to do the powerful Elbow Drop move. Use it only at close range

THE MAKING OF CLAY FIGHTER

The mystery is solved! The Clay Fighters didn't really come from meteor remains, they were created in an art studio! Kinda blows the whole mystique, huh? Well, anyway, we thought you'd enjoy seeing behind the scenes, into the virtual gruntworks of how Clay Fighter came to be. Interplay worked closely with Visual Concepts to produce the game, but Danger Productions, a growing company in Betsboro, California, toyed around about what kind of characters should be in the game. It finally came down to eight main clay competitors. Some characters required more modeling than others to capture all of their planned movements. There were approximately 70 different Blob models made! The actual process of constructing the characters and capturing their various

CLAY MAKING

DETAILS, DETAILS

was responsible for the modeling of the Clay Fighter characters. There were several different types of clay used in the modeling processes. For example, because Taffy is so thin, the type of material used to construct him had to be stronger than simple, ord-positions in digital form took only a few months, but the real work came in translating those images into the moving characters you see kicking clay in the video game. A video camera routed through an Amiga computer running a graphics editor program captured the images digitally. Those images were combined and animated so the moves could all flow together. All the work was worth it—the animations really lend themselves to the game play!

DUCK DODGERS TO THE RESCUE!

Saving the galaxy from Marvin the Martian is hard, but Daffy Duck is determined to do it. Sunsoft has made the jump from cartoons to video games a short one with this Super NES adventure. Using ACME weapons, Daffy will need your help getting out of some pretty feathery situations. You must rescue galactic ambassadors, stop waves of instant Martians, and destroy the PJ8 Space-Modulator. These challenges await the greatest super hero in the world, Duck Dodgers!

PRETTY COOL

Crisp graphics and sound make Daffy Duck: The Marvin Missions feel like you're playing a cartoon! With so many stages to explore on foot and by way of your Jet Pack, this game is hours of fun. Throw in five weapons and lots of hidden items to ensure enjoyment for players of all skill levels. You face enemies all through this space-blasting adventure that are straight out of some of Daffy and Marvin the Martian's greatest cartoon adventures.

ACME WEAPONS SHOP

You'll need weapons to defeat the fiendish Marvin the Martian, so why not use the best? That means ACME brand weapons. (Didn't Wile E. Coyote have some problems with ACME products?). Here at the weapons shop you can buy anything you need, from weapon Power-Ups to extra lives and Continues. Remember, the more expensive an item is, the better it is for you, so spend your money wisely!

FREEZE GUN

Give an alien a cold shower with this gun. It'll stop 'em in their tracks. Watch out, they thaw out quick.

ELECTRICITY GUN

What a shock! This gun will do really heavy damage, but don't count on hitting everything that you aim at. DUCK!

THREE WAY GUN

Next to the Anti-Matter gun, it's the best gun ACME makes. Three shots at once make enemies very easy to dispatch.

BOMB GUN

Do heavy damage to meddling Martians by shooting these bombs at them. CAUTION: The bombs can bounce back and hurt you.

ANTI-MATTER GUN

It sounds good, it is good! This is the best gun money can buy. Use it when you come face-to-face with Marvin.

FUEL

Something that every flying duck needs! Fill your tank every once you visit the ACME Weapons Shop. Happy flying!

NUTTY ATTACK

What! What! Fly around the room in a blur of feet and feathers, doing heavy damage to all that get in your way.

CONTINUE GEM

This gem is worth its weight in gold and hard to find. If you can't find them, buy them at the ACME Weapons Shop.

EXTRA LIFE

The most expensive item ACME carries. A good purchase when you can't find any Continues and you're low on lives.

ATTACK TIPS

The indubitable Duck Dodgers has a bunch of weapons at his disposal, which there are a lot of different methods to defeat the minions of Marvin the Martian. Here are the basic tactics that will help you put an end to his evil doings. The shield is an indispensable tool when fighting the big green aliens. It blocks most alien shots and lava rocks, too! If you're low on lives and surrounded by bad guys, use the Nutty Attack. Though few and far between, this attack will get rid of the bad guys in a flurry of feet and feathers. Good Luck!

GUN FORCE

Anytime you fire a gun, watch where you are standing! The force of the shot will push Daffy off cliffs and into lava pits. This can be helpful when you are trying to guide Daffy through tough jumps and snail gaps.

While standing next to the overhang, Daffy should fire away from the ledge. After jumping up his first bladder to be scared back onto the ledge.

DUCK & SHOOT

Martians aren't too flexible and can't, or won't, hit you if you duck, but you can shoot at them. This is a big help when you're up against aliens like the Lava Men too. Use this tactic to beat some mini-bosses.

When you duck down and shoot you will end up in a crouching position. This is a good stance to blast the aliens from, as most shots will go right over your head.

WHERE THERE'S DUCK THERE'S FIRE

Our first mission finds Duck Dodgers on the planet of Magma searching for Marvin and the abducted ambassadors. Watch out for the scorching lava pools and flying lava rocks. On this planet, cacti pack a real punch and there are even bad guys hiding in the walls. Your Jet Pack and Shield are going to see lots of action in this vacation hot spot.

HIDDEN STUFF

The key to this area is finding all the hidden items. There are cardboard boxes, money and weapons to be found. Use your Jet Pack wisely to reach the hard-to-find items.

SAVE FUEL

Conserve fuel on your way over the top here. If you are low on fuel when you return, grab the fuel can on this ledge to keep going.

CONTINUE GATE

These gates mark your progress through out each level. Hit them to ensure that you don't go back to the start when you get defeated later in the level.

PART TWO

Welcome to the main area of the resort. Martians have overrun the place and are hiding in the hallways. Marvin is holding some hostages in the sub-basement, so go down the elevators to save them. Be sure to explore all the passageways to find the many items that have been left behind by the fleeing guests.

WAIT AND RIDE

Here at Lava Lakes Pleasure Resort they don't have any stairs, they have the best elevators around. But Marvin the Martian has taken the place over. It's best to use the elevators rather than your Jet Pack to get around. To defeat Martians standing around the elevators, just shoot at them while riding the lift up and down. The other guests left a number of volcano items in the elevator shafts on their way out, so be on the lookout.

MANY ITEMS

Throughout this section of the game there are Power-Ups and other items to be found. Be sure to explore every level of the hotel to find all the goodies that have been left behind. There is a Juice Glass at the top of the first elevator—can you make it that far?

PART ONE

DAFFY DUCK:
THE MARVIN MISSIONS

Welcome to the fabulous resort planet of Magma, where the cool people come to heat things up! You need to work your way upward to the right to find the entrance to the amazing Lava Lakes Pleasure Resort. Among the items that are hidden here in the first area are: a continue gem, an extra life, and some moneybags. Keep in mind that your primary goal is to rescue the ambassadors.

END

BATTLE ON

Looks like the Martians have you surrounded! Defeat these two green enemies and you'll get onto the hotel where Marvin is hiding. The Force Gun will be useful in this fight, keeping you from becoming the main course at a Martian feast. Use your Shield and Blaster when you take their numbers in hand.

SECRET PASSAGES

The passages are hidden in the walls, just like in Earth Valley Rally. Jump up and press towards the wall to find these hidden wonders.

20,000 MARTIANS UNDER THE SEA

If it's wet and muggy, it must be planet Aquarion-4. Marvin has millions of instant Martians (just add water) that he plans to unleash on the galaxy. It is a good thing that Daffy's a duck, there's loads of swimming on this planet. The Jet Pack works in water so be sure to top off the tanks before diving in. Since you're in a water world, the movement is a little weird. The fish here aren't exactly friendly, they want Daffy for dinner!

PART TWO

Welcome to the ocean on Aquarion-4. Moving around in the water is strange, all your actions will be exaggerated so be very careful. Watch for angry fish and scuba diving Martians who really want you to stay down here. Your Jet Pack will be a big help down here as well.

20,000 MARTIANS UNDER THE SEA

If it's not one thing, it just has to be the other. Now Daffy's taking the waters of the Southwestern coast all over again. In place of a water park, he's got a water park. It's a rip-off, but it's a rip-off along the Atlantic coast, where most of everything is the same. The fact that there's a water park in a water park, the difference is a water park. The fact that there's a water park, the difference is a water park.

MINING

to slow you down, Marvin has put a mine in the water. These are on the surface so Duffy makes better when this mine to do so be to let two them.

DRAGON FIRE

This two-headed monster is nothing but trouble for our hero. The two heads alternate blowing wind and fire to confuse and hurt Duffy. The easiest way to get under this dragon's skin is to use the Electricity Gun. You will take some damage, but if you are careful, it shouldn't be enough to finish you off. Stand on the far left and shoot at the dragon head as it passes over you and don't worry about the other head. By defeating one head you finish off the body as well.

BUT WAIT.... THERE'S MORE

There are more places in this game than we could ever hear. To finish off the second mission, make sure that your Jet Pack has a full Fuel bar and that you have a lot of the high-powered weapons. The rest of the missions are quite an adventure. You'll be sent to the ice planet of Zeus-3, where the ground is very slick, to rescue Earth's biggest brain, Dr. IQ High. Then you travel to the jungle planet of Amazonius to stop Marvin's Shrinking Ray. The final mission is the destruction of the infamous P-38 Space Modulator. Do you have what it takes to help Duck Dodgers save the world as we know it?!

PART THREE

You have now reached the deepest sub-basement of the resort. Marvin can't be far away now. There are a lot of Lawn Men and big green Martians down here so be careful. In order to finish this area you'll have to defend yourself with your Shield and use your special weapons against these guys. When you get to this area it is a good idea to have most, if not all, of your Fuel left. There are even more moneybags and Power-Ups down here.

FUEL ANYONE?

A full Fuel bar will help right here. The only way to get the stuff up here is by using your Jet Pack. There are a couple of different coins to explore and it will take a bunch of Fuel to find the Nasty Attack. Moneybags and Power Ups in this area. Good luck and happy flying!

MENACING MARVIN

Big bad Marvin, now get rid of him! Make sure you have a few special weapons when you reach him in his escape ship. Stand down until he sees and shoot straight up that will get rid of him in a hurry. Once he brings out the big gun, use the Shield and keep blasting away.

TRACK TACTICS

Not every death-defying driver is going to be a pro the first time out in the wild world of Battle Cars, so here are a few tips and techniques on the first five tracks to help the rookies get started. You may also find it helpful to choose the Easy difficulty level on the Options screen until you get the hang of what it feels like to be behind the wheel of a 3000-pound pure performance machine.

NEWTROIT

Welcome to the first track, Newtrot. Metal Head Mike thinks he's the master racer here and may make you want to slaver in your driving suit with his taunts and threats. But remember, he's just full of hot exhaust. Don't sweat it!

METAL HEAD MIKE

CROSS COUNTRY

The name of the game in the Cross Country challenge is cutting down your time, causing crashes and collecting as much Cash and Credit as possible. The Homing Missiles are especially effective in these beginning stages to knock the competition out of the way for good.

A Missile from behind works every time!

Tally up your earnings after each race.

OVERVIEW

Finish Newtrot in the Hard difficulty level for an extraordinary twist on traveling through the track.

A top-down view allows you the advantage of being able to anticipate all the upcoming curves.

WEAPON TACTICS

Although he probably would like to, Mario Andretti can't launch a Grenade when he's passing Al Unser in the final lap of the Indy 500. But you can in Battle Flaming Missiles are easy to use and quite effective.

Buzzes are easy to use but are less accurate than the Flaming Missiles.

Grenades work best along the straightaways when you have time to aim. One hit is all it takes!

EVASIVE MANEUVERS

Caught in a tight spot with a terrifying tailgater coming up from behind? When your competitor is much too fast to outrun and you just can't seem to shake them, try one of these surefire evasive maneuvers. With a little practice, they'll get the message and back off!

For a surprise Barrel Roll, press and hold the Left and Right Buttons to jump, then press Down while you're in the air. Once you get this down, you can shoot the car behind you while reversed in the air!

Flaming Missiles tend to stay close by you until they have a target. Launch a missile that slows down. The next car that passes you is in for a big surprise!

Build up that Jump ability so that you can hop right on top of a rival and cause it to spin out.

BOSS CAR

How can you get to drive the Boss Car in the 1-Player Mode? Only a patient and winning driver will be rewarded with this mystery feature...

PLANETS & TRACKS

Ladies and gentlemen start your engines, because here are all the tracks you can try on the Easy difficulty level! Even though they get harder and harder to negotiate as you go, enjoy these tracks while you can because later you'll come across some courses that are literally out of this world! Each track is home to a nasty pit boss who's waiting to crush you and your second-rate little scooter. Good luck!

KATMANDU

Dirty Knuckle Ned may be a dirty dog, but if you can stay clean in the driver's seat, Katmandu will be a breeze.

DIRTY KNUCKLE NED

MELTDOWN

That dirty daredevil Doctor Diana has a degree in destruction and you're her next patient! Give Diana a taste of her own medicine and send her straight to the hospital and out of the race for good.

DOCTOR DIANA

FUJI

The motor mayhem in Fuji makes those other tracks seem like a Sunday drive. You'll have to really watch your bumper because not only will you be shooting at your fellow competitors, they'll be returning fire!

MANIACAL MARIKO

NUEVO VEGAS

There are no fun and games here—you're gambling with your life while racing in Nuevo Vegas. Beat Buffed Bachmed and overwhelming odds for a sweeping victory in Easy mode!

BUFFED BACHMED

MORE TRACKS

These were only the tracks in the Easy difficulty level. Try Medium or Hard for even more challenging courses.

Who knows where you'll end up?

SUPER SCOPE ROUNDUP

READY, AIM, FIRE!!

YOSHI'S SAFARI

© 1993 Nintendo

When Nintendo first released the Super Scope, its incredible abilities impressed most players. The main question that players had, was when more games would be coming out for the Super Scope. Well here is your chance to check out four more great titles that challenge your shooting skills. Grab your Super Scope, take aim and open fire!

T2 THE ARCADE GAME

YOSHI'S SAFARI

Yoshi's Safari is a Super Scope game that will appeal to younger players. The play is easy to control, and the familiar characters are colorful and bright. This game is a hit!

Yoshi leads the way as you take on the crazy animals of Gem Land. Be ready to blast them out of the sky.

When you visit the Princess, she asks you to save the King and his son, the Prince.

Many of the bosses are protected by armor. Just when you have them beat, they begin attacking again.

You will recognize many of the enemies from the Mario games you have played in the past.

METAL COMBAT FALCON'S REVENGE

The sequel to Battle Clash, this game offers players hours of shooting fun. The game has been greatly improved over the original, with better graphics and all-new bosses!

After clearing the ST Clash of the Earth, blast off into space and find the rest of the bosses.

You can play three different game modes. After finishing the Battle Mode you can try the tougher levels.

Watch the Demo Mode of the game to learn more about your enemies before the battle begins.

T2: THE ARCADE GAME

All the thrills of the popular arcade shoot-'em-up has arrived on the Super NES. The incredible digitized graphics and the two-player action will keep you coming back for more.

Cyberman Systems has created an army of Enforcers bent on destroying the entire human race.

Even though you are not a human, they will try to stop you from restoring the cause of mankind.

SUPER SCOPE

Most TV's scan the image onto the screen, starting at the top of the screen, and working across line by line to the bottom, drawing the complete picture. The Super Scope keeps constant track of where on the screen the scan is. When you fire the Super Scope, it looks to see where the scan is, then it tells the Super NES to place the shot on the screen during the next scan.

YOSHI'S SAFARI

Here is your chance to hop into Mario's shoes and go for the ride of a lifetime. With the help of your pal Yoshi and your trusty Super Scope on your shoulder, you take on the forces of the dastardly King Koopa and his clan of Koopalings. Take aim and good luck!

DIFFERENT WORLDS

There are a total of 12 worlds for you to visit. After you finish the first seven worlds, you travel to the dangerous Underworld.

You must drive all of the enemies out of the seven levels of Rainbow World to save the King.

To save the Prince, you must travel to the Underworld and beat King Koopa.

DEFEATING BOSSSES

The bosses of each level are well armored, and are ready to take you on. Every boss has a weak point that you must try to hit with your shots. To clear some levels, you must defeat the boss several times in a row.

When the boss is completely armored, aim for any weak point that lies.

When the boss returns, aim at his head. This way you will do maximum damage.

If you play the Hard Mode of the game, some of the bosses will be more difficult to beat.

FAMILIAR FACES

You may recognize most of the characters from other Mario games that you have played. When you encounter a new enemy, remember how they attacked you in previous games. If you do, you will know what to watch for when you shoot them. For example, if you shoot a Koopa, watch out for its shell when it comes back your way.

New enemies attack you just like they did in other Mario games. Try to defeat them quickly.

Shoot Goombas while they are still in the distance, or they can sweep in from the sides of the screen and land on top of Yoshi.

METAL COMBAT™

FALCON'S REVENGE

The fighting on Earth has been destructive ever since the creation of the Standing Tanks, or STs. Advanced technology has been twisted to create these monstrous machines, originally designed only to compete in the Battle Game. Your only chance to stop the destruction is to defeat the evil Anubis and his ST Theros.

CONQUER THE PLANETS

Each of the ST Chiefs controls a portion of the Earth, but as you defeat them, you learn that their control spreads much further. The entire Solar System suffers beneath the iron fist of the STs. It will take a steady hand and a quick shot to stop them.

The second player can use Controller 2 to select any of the bosses in the first part of the game.

2-PLAYER ACTION

Players can challenge each other in the 2-Player mode. One player plays normally, using the Super Scope to defeat the boss. The second player controls any boss with Controller 1.

TEAR 'EM TO PIECES

When you encounter a new boss, it is important to locate all of its weak points. Shooting Energy Beams at weapons and limbs will often be the quickest way to stop any enemy.

When you first start fighting a boss, aim your Energy Beams at the joints. If you aim well, you can knock off the enemy's limbs.

If you succeed in knocking off all of the limbs the boss will have trouble firing back. Knocking off the legs will keep it from moving.

T2

THE ARCADE GAME™

All the action of the big arcade hit has been slammed into the Super NES with a bang. LJN has created a great Super Scope game with enough action to please any T2 fan. The graphics are great, using images and photos from the movie, but the color gets bleached out when you use the Super Scope.

TWO-PLAYER ACTION

It is much easier to defeat all of the enemies when you team up and play with a friend. You can play the game with two Controllers, or with a Super Scope and a Controller.

Both players go head to head, trying to defeat as many of the enemies as possible.

Player One uses a Controller, while Player Two can use a Super Scope.

TOP SCORES

All of your top scores are recorded while you are playing. You can keep track of your progress as you get better at defeating the Endoskeletons. All the scores are reset when you shut off the game.

Your top scores are recorded as long as you don't turn off the power.

STAGE BOSSSES

Some of the stages in the game have a boss that you must defeat to finish the stage. When you fight a boss, you must defeat each part in the correct order, or your shots won't harm it. You can tell you're doing damage when you see the boss catch fire. Many of the weak points are also the where the weapon systems are located.

When you encounter a boss, shoot at the weapon systems first.

After the guns are gone, work your way from top to bottom, shooting each section.

If you don't seem to be defeating a boss, shoot around until something flashes.

Watch out! Some bosses will try a last ditch effort to blast you.

JUST LIKE THE ARCADE

STAGE 1

Out on the battlefield it's an all-out war. If you start running out of energy during the fight, shoot at the supply boxes.

In Stage 1, shoot everything you can, except for the humans. It may be easier to hit the Gato staters if you take out all of the walls.

STAGE 2

The machines have found the last stronghold of the humans. Stop the enemy assault before all of the humans are destroyed.

When you are in the Human Hideral, avoid shooting the humans dressed in green. Everything else on the screen is fair game.

STAGE 3

The machines are going to send a T-1000 into the past to destroy John Connor. You must protect the humans as you try to stop them.

During the Truck Stage, protecting John Connor is your top priority. Shoot all the enemies on the screen, or the truck may explode.

LAMBORGHINI AMERICAN CHALLENGE™

When you are playing a racing game, have you ever wanted to blast past car that keeps beating you? That's just what you can do with a Super Scope during this wild racing game.

SUPER SCOPE RACING

When you are racing in the Super Scope, you can steer your car by shooting where you want to go.

To improve your position in the race, you can take out your opponents with a quick shot from the Super Scope.

You can't defeat your rivals in the Street Mode, but the graphics and the color are a little clearer when you play.

FROM AGENT #750 Special Move Select

Most fans of Street Fighter II Turbo have mastered the moves of their favorite characters, but with this code, you can try your hand against an opponent without your best moves. When the game begins, select the Vs. Battle. After both players have picked out their favorite fighters, you will go to the Stage Select screen. On Controller II, press Down, R, Up, L, Y, and B. On the new screen you will be able to shut off the fighters' special moves.

Special Move Shut-off

If you want to challenge an opponent to a fight with all the Special Moves shut off, use this code instead. When you first turn on the game, wait until the music starts and enter the code above on Controller I. If you enter the code before the Capcom logo fades, the Special Moves won't work.

Wait until you hear the music start, then enter the code above on Controller I.

Be sure to enter the entire code before the Capcom logo fades.

If you enter the code correctly both players will be without a Special Move.

Without your Special Moves it will be much tougher to beat your opponents.

FROM AGENT #803 Strange Finish

Agent #803 has found a strange trick that works every time if you use Sub-Zero. Finish off your opponent in the first round any way you can. During the second round you must run your opponent's power meter all the way down without the "Finish Him" flashing across the screen. Use Sub-Zero's freeze to make the "Finish Him" appear, then hit him with the Finishing Move. Sub-Zero will shatter the ice around his opponent and leave the body standing.

When you use Sub-Zero, beat your opponent in the first round any way that you can.

In the second round, run your opponent's Power Meter down with High Punches.

Stop punching when the Power Meter is all the way down but before it says, "Finish Him."

Freeze your opponent's meter and wait until the screen flashes "Finish Him."

Press Down, Forward then the B Button to use Sub-Zero's Finishing Move.

You will freeze and shatter your opponent, but he will still be standing when you're done.

FROM AGENT #829

Easy Spells

Agent #829 has sent us a trick that lets you begin the game with eight combat spells. When you start a new game, immediately go see the King in Alshain. In the town, create characters until you are told to erase one. When you leave, you will lose all of your gold, but your character will gain eight combat spells.

When you start a new game, go see the King then go to town.

Continue to create new characters until you are told to erase one of them.

When you go back downstairs you will lose all of your gold.

In return, you will begin the game with eight new combat spells.

THE LEGEND OF ZELDA THE MURDER PRINCE

FROM AGENT #803

Free Bow

Use this trick to get yourself the powerful Bow without spending any of your precious Rupees. After you have earned enough Rupees to buy the Bow, return to the shop in the town. Pick up the Bow and carry it over to the Shopkeeper. When he asks you if you want to purchase it, go ahead and buy it. While the rupees are being deducted from your purse, quickly save your game. When you return to the game, you will have the Bow and all the Rupees, too!

Walk into the store with enough money to buy the Bow.

Pick up the Bow and take it to the Shopkeeper to buy it.

While the Rupees are being taken away, save your game.

When you return to the game, you will have the Rupees and the Bow.

Bomb Arrows

Our agents have found a great new weapon that you can use against enemies that are vulnerable to bombs. Equip the Bow in one hand and the Bombs in the other. Using both Bombs and Arrows you can shoot an exploding arrow by pressing both buttons at the same time. This weapon is great for hitting enemies with a Bomb from across the screen, keeping you safe from attack.

Equip the Bow in one hand and the Bombs in the other hand.

When you press both buttons you will shoot a Bomb Arrow.

Grab the Guy

About halfway through the game, Marin will follow you when you go to the Animal Village. If you walk into the Trendy Game while she is following you, something strange will happen. She will take the controls of the game. She will pick up the man who runs the game and drop him on the conveyor belt. This trick doesn't help you out, but it's fun to try.

At one point in the game, Marin will follow you whenever you go.

While she's following you, take her to the Game and back to the Main Inland.

She will take the controls of the game and use the crane to pick him up.

This trick doesn't do much for you, but it's fun to try out.

TOM AND JERRY FRANTIC ANTICS!

THE STREET

LEVEL 1

OFF TO THE HOUSE

Hurry Tom! Get back home before the wrecking crew starts tearing down the house. The street is in pretty bad condition, so avoid the sink holes and broken fire hydrants. Try borrowing a scooter for a little extra speed.

HITCH A RIDE

If you walk onto a scooter you can ride it as long as you want. Press the B Button to hop off.

SINK HOLES

Watch out! As you ride your scooter, avoid falling off the edge of the road. If you do you will lose one of your lives.

CLIMB BUILDINGS

Be sure to check up the building to find hidden items. You can leap from windowsill to windowsill to walk your way up. You may need to jump off the edge of buildings to find some hidden items.

THE LOUNGE

LEVEL 2

MAKE YOUR WAY TO SAFETY

WRECKING BALL

Just when you think it safe to run, a wrecking ball swings down and takes you for a ride. If you see one swing at you, jump over it.

BOUNCING ON CHAIRS

You can jump high enough to reach some of the areas overhead. If you press the A button just as you are landing on a chair, you will spring high enough to reach the upper areas.

As soon as you make it back home, the wrecking crew sets to work on your house. Escape from the house before you get caught in the falling rubble. Don't worry about collecting all the Fish, or you may find yourself stuck in a dead end.

SECRET ROOMS

Press against some of the walls as you work your way through the game. Sometimes a secret room is hidden where you least expect it.

THE LOUNGE REVISITED

LEVEL 3

JERRY IS IN DANGER

After escaping from the falling house, Tom's conscience urges him to re-enter it. Working his way back through the rubble, Tom looks for his lost friend Jerry. Search the upper area of the house to find him.

BACK INTO THE HOUSE

Things have changed when you go back into the house. The balls on ball of runaway skateboards and rampage toys. Work your way up to the top floor before the rail falls on your head. Hurray!

Can you help her find her way home?

TOM & JERRY FRANTIC ANTICS!

LET'S SWIM

Because Tom doesn't like water, Jerry is stuck searching the sewers. Swimming is easy for a mouse, but watch out for the Fish, these teeth are sharp. When you hop back to land, run against the current to avoid being washed away.

ALLEY CAT

Before Jerry can rescue Robyn, he must first defeat the big Alley Cat. Use the Rolling Attack to take him out.

LEVEL 5

THE KITCHEN

WATCH OUT FOR FERDINAND!

WATCH YOUR HEAD

The kitchen can be a deadly place for an intruder. Keep a lookout for falling objects as you work through the kitchen. Remember to use the E-Rubber to speed up, avoid any falling plates and attacking spiders.

BAD DOG

Aunt Figg's dog, Ferdinand, is guarding the kitchen. You can jump over him when he runs at you, but don't stand in one place for very long or he'll get you!

Only Aunt Figg knows who Robyn's parents really are. Tom must sneak into the house before he can reunite Robyn with her family. Getting through the kitchen can be tricky!

LEVEL 6

THE LIBRARY

FIND THE TELEGRAM

Jerry searches the Library for the lost Telegram. If he can find it, he and Tom will know where to take Robyn. Search inside all of the hidden areas to get all of the bonus Items. When you climb up the bookshelves be careful of flying books.

USE THE DUCTS

The trick to finding all of the different hidden areas is using the ducts. If you hop inside of one, Jerry will slide down to a new area. Remember which ducts you have already explored so you don't miss anything.

WHO'S ROBYN'S FATHER?

Who is Robyn's father? If you can save him from the cabin fire in the final stage, the mystery will be solved. Good Luck!

START

PRESS THE SWITCH

This appears to be a dead end, but looks can be deceiving. Just jump up to flip the switch and move on.

The letter A you need is too high for Mega Man now, but if you come back later, after you have received the Ring Beamer, he can reach it in a twist!

BOSS

PHARAOH MAN

Pharaoh Man proves to be a real solid foe. Shoot him a high spot in the middle while using the Flash Stomper to slow him down.

DO THE ROBOT HOP

In such a treacherous place, it is best to roll forward from here. Luckily, you can use this guy's head to go over the spikes and gaps.

MEGA MAN IV

BRIGHT MAN

Thank goodness for the Power Flash. It's the best thing against Bright Man's Flash Stayer. Get him and his nasty weapons is yours!

RING MAN STAGE

SLIDING ON THE MOVING PLATFORMS

These conveyor belts are no problem if you watch your step. Just hop on when they're going your way or slide if they're moving away from you.

The Ring Man Stage is worse than a three-ring circus of terror, and Mega Man is not amused. Between the honking cannons on the walls and the discombobulating conveyor belts around every corner, completing the final stage before reaching Dr. Wily's castle is going to require plenty of practice, patience and perseverance.

START

MEGA BUST AWAY!

Charge up your Power Stone pump and shoot right when this grumpy guy is most not visible—as he loses out a body part!

RING MAN

Ring Man isn't all fun and games. Dodge his Ring Boomerangs and use Powerup Up Phosphor Stone to vanquish this jester. He will pump toward you but don't be when asked this just makes your job a little easier!

BOSS

After completing the first four stages, a Dr. Wily Stage will appear on the Stage Select screen. If you choose this stage, you will have to defeat a mini-boss before facing the menacing Dr. Wily himself. Bullade comes to the rescue, though, and Dr. Wily is able to escape before you are able to get him once and for all. Return to the Stage Select and two more stages will be available.

YOUR FRIEND, BEAT!

In each of the first four stages, you received a letter. These letters spell out BEAT. Beat is your powerful new ally who will help you from now on. Dr. Wily won't get away again!

CHARGE MAN STAGE

This is no time to be taking a train ride through the countryside, but it is a good opportunity to collect some hard to reach items with the Ring Boomerang.

CHARGE MAN

Watch for local Keep jumping and using the Flash Skipper to take the charge out of Charge Man.

NAPALM MAN STAGE

Don't let the name scare you away. Mega Man is holding up well against all that Dr. Wily has thrown at him so far. Be sure to look for a surprise visitor hiding in this stage.

NAPALM MAN

Use the Rush Rush and Item 1 to get out the fire and get in to face Napalm Man.

STONE MAN STAGE

Remove the hippopotamus from your path by using the Rush Flush or by shooting out the platform he is standing on. Find a hidden item in this stage by using Rush Jet and the slide technique.

STONE MAN

CRYSTAL MAN STAGE

MEGA MAN IV

The sky's falling! Actually, it's just the ceiling but be careful nonetheless. This is a tough stage, especially when you meet "Flip Top."

CRYSTAL MAN

Charge up those Photon Shots and let Crystal Man know it's right in his Crystal Eye! He'll jump toward you to be prepared.

BALLADE

Ballade is not going to make it easy for you to get to Dr. Wily, but Photon Shots are your best bet.

FINALLY, DR. WILY

you'll have to defeat all eight disposing of Dr. Wily for good.

Mega Man isn't the only survivor of the castle's collapse. Dr. Wily also makes it out and gets to his spaceship, but Mega Man in his Rush Jet is hot on his tail. Just like the prequels, bosses again before Using Freeze Man's weapon, throw the ice that blocks access to the 1-Up. Use caution pumping back.

POWER FOR LIFE

Use Rush Power to break through the cracked ice block at this area. Mega Man will earn a needed 1-Up!

A mix of slippery ice surfaces and snowpack, which isn't slippery, is enough to keep most players guessing whether or not they'll slide off of a ledge in Blizzard Man's stage.

BO SQUIDDLEY

A simple squid blocks Mega Man's path! Several Mega Buster shots should take care of it. Watch out for the missiles and use cubes that it shoots.

PLANT MAN STAGE

Plant Man's domain is fairly flat, but it can be deceptively difficult. There are a lot of enemies that come at Mega Man from unconventional angles.

START

TRAK BOSS

Twice during this stage, Mega Man will encounter this boss. Jump up and shoot for its eyes. Use a special weapon or charge up the Mega Buster for the long shots. Rapid fire up close.

When Blizard Man rolls up into a ball and evens toward you, just jump up out of the way - ball bounce back away from you. You may have to move a bit to weave through his Blizard Attack when it comes your way.

BOSS

HE GROWS ON YOU

Jump over the invisible Plant Attack and let Plant Man have it with the Blizard Attack. Secretly after being hit several times, Plant Man should change at you. He will retreat and try again.

PROTOMAN PRESENT

Hang from the ladder and use Rush Power to break the block that covers the entrance to a secret room. Protoman will give Mega Man a mysterious gift when he enters the room. What could this strange item be used for?

FALSE BOSS

WAR CRY!!!

Power Up with the Plant Barrier and slide under the tombstone that by your way. This particular weapon does a lot of damage to Tombstone Man. Don't waste it.

TRUE BOSS

YAMATO MAN STAGE

There is a lot of territory to cover in this stage. Check out the map to make sure you take the route that will lead you to the true boss.

START

FROGBOT

Power-Up with a long range special weapon like the Silver Ironsaw when you combine this green mechanical monstrosity. Slide under the laser shot.

KNIGHT MAN STAGE

A letdown in the action, Knight Man's stage isn't quite as challenging as it could be although there are some tricky spots. Check the map for those areas.

START

SPIKE DANGER

With precision and some deft jumping and sliding, Mega Man should be able to escape deadly punctures in this area.

The laws of gravity (and aquatics) are thrown out the window for Centaur Man's stage. Precision will go a long way in your struggle for survival in this stage.

SPIKE ZONE

The trick here is to hold down the Jump Button for as long as you want to jump. You'll stop rising when you let go of it.

WHAT'S GOING ON?

It's not every day that you can jump up into water, but that's what Mega Man will have to do here. You can use the power of the Rush Jet to avoid the hazard, too!

TRUE BOSS

WHAT'S A YAMATO?

If you have more than one Energy Tank in reserve, the battle with Nemesis Men will be no problem. If you get low on power just drain one of your tanks. However, if you have to fight on the up and up, just slide under the square shot he chuckles and Mow him with the Silver Toothpick.

SPRINGS

Use the Blast Jet suit to fly through this area. Try to stay off all the springs as much as possible because it's very difficult to control where you'll land.

FALSE BOSS

TRUE BOSS

MACE MASTER

Knight Man is actually very easy to defeat if you have Nemesis Spear. Just hop over the Mace shots that fly at you and continue to attack apart. Knight Man will soon go right night.

TRUE BOSS

NEIGH!

Centaur Man has three main forms of attack. First he shoots a shot that will go over your head. But when it reaches the other side of the room it will break up into numerous shots and they will spread out as the room top. Second, he can freeze you for a moment, and last, he can disappear and then reappear right on top of you. Use the Knight Dash and keep moving.

WIND MAN STAGE

Out of the initial eight stages in Mega Man VI, this is probably one of the most difficult stages to complete. Riding on the air blower currents makes it especially demanding.

POWER BLASTIN'

It's not a bad idea to suit up with Flash Power. Don't charge the weapons up fully. Its regular shots are more powerful than normal Air Cannon shots.

BLOW HARD

Wind Man is quite active. Blow him down with Centaur Flash and then let him have it again! When he starts up his fans, you'll be sucked toward him. Quickly turn away and slide in the opposite direction until the suction subsides. Dodge the crossing fan blade shots.

MR. X STAGE

OK, now comes the tough part! The action is so much more intense in Mr. X's castle. Frequently switching between Mega Man's weapons and Power-Ups will be a necessity.

MR. X, HUH?

It's not like we're givin' anything away here. Mr. X doesn't really exist. It's... of course, Dr. Willy again. He won't go away! His castle has been rebuilt (again) and his arsenal of crazy contraptions is fully stocked.

SECTION 1

You can take care of the track rockets with Plant Barrier and Rush Power.

SECTION 2

You should try the Silver Tonkewerk, Centaur Flash and Rush Jet on this well here.

SECTION 3

This boss can be taken out using Buzzart Attack and proper use of Rush Jet.

SECTION 4

Mr. X's optical pendulum ship can be brought under control with Flame Blast.

HOW DO I GET THROUGH THE NEVER-ENDING ROOM ON THE FIFTH FLOOR?

Oliver Russell

This room appears to go on forever, but it really doesn't—it's just fooling you. If you face the entrance and step backwards, you'll see what's happening. You're actually stepping into a line of silent, invisible teleporters that send you back to the entrance. Go to the southwest corner of the room and push the wall switch there to turn off the teleporter next to the north wall. You can now follow the wall clockwise around to the Treasure Room.

The teleporter keeps sending you back to the beginning. Press the switch to turn one off.

With the north teleporter off, you can follow the wall clockwise around to the Treasure Room.

HOW DO I GET THROUGH THE FIFTH FLOOR'S SLIDING BLOCK ROOM?

There's more than one way to get through this room, but they all involve pressing switches to open walls up. At first, there's only one visible switch. Push it to open the wall behind you. Turn around and press the switch there, then push the first one again to open a wall three spaces to the north. Move north three spaces, west one, then press the switch there to open two sections of wall, one to your left, the other behind you. Don't press the switch on your left. Turn around and go north one space, then east four spaces. Flip the switch to open the Treasure Room on the east wall.

From your starting point, only a single switch is visible. Press it to open the wall behind you.

After opening the wall to the north, go up and left. Flip the switch there to open two walls.

Turn around and move north one space, east four. The last switch opens the Treasure Room.

WHAT DO I DO IN THE RIDDLE ROOM ON THE SIXTH FLOOR?

There are four riddles on the walls in this room, and four alcoves where you must place the items hinted at in the riddles. Placing the items in the right alcoves will make a hidden alcove that holds an Iron Key appear. Pair the following items with the corresponding riddles: the Mirror of Dawn by "I am all, I am none"; a Gold Coin by "A golden head and tail but no body"; a Bow by "I arch, but have no back"; and a Blue Gem by "Hard as rocks, blue as sky." Pick up the Iron Key when the hidden alcove appears.

THE LEGEND OF ZELDA: LINK'S AWAKENING

WHAT DOES THE CLUE, "FIRST A POLS VOICE, THEN LAST THE STALFOS," MEAN?

John Esberry

In Level 2, you'll get the clue, "First a Pols Voice, then last the Stalfos" when you read a wall tile. Soon after, you'll enter a room that is inhabited by a Pols Voice, a Keese and a Stalfos. You must defeat the Pols Voice first, the Keese second and the Stalfos last in order to get the Nightmare Key. Shift a block to free the Pols Voice, then hit it with a bottle. The Sword works well on the Keese (the bat) and the skeleton-like Stalfos.

When you reach this wall tile you'll get a clue about having the three enemies to come.

Throw a bottle to take out the Pols Voice, then use the Sword on the others.

WHY SHOULD I GO FISHING?

There's an avid angler fishing at the lake north of Madame Meow-Meow's house. For ten Rupees, he'll let you use his pole. Use the Control Pad to direct your cast.

and press the A or B Button rapidly when you've hooked a fish to reel it in. There are two fish, big and small, in the lake. When you land a small fish, the fisherman will give you five Rupees, but if you land a lunker, he'll reward you with 20 Rupees. And best of all, when you land the last fish and empty the lake, you'll get a Piece of Heart.

The fisherman at the lake north of Madame Meow-Meow's charges ten Rupees per cast.

He'll offer you only five Rupees for a runt, but don't get discouraged—keep fishing.

When you land the last lunker you'll get 20 Rupees and a Piece of Heart.

HOW DO I REACH THE CAVE ENTRANCE NEAR MARTHA'S BAY?

Reaching the hidden cave entrance near Martha's Bay is tricky. Link can jump the gap, but there's no place for him to land. Jump the pit and swing your Sword on the way down. You might fall into the pit, but at least you'll clear a landing site that will still be there when you reappear. Now you can jump over and hack a path to the entrance to a tunnel that leads to a Mad Barber's Shrine.

Jump over the pit and swing your Sword down as you come down.

When you reappear after falling, the cleared space will still be there. Jump over to it.

Get through the bushes to the hidden entrance. Go in and find the Mad Barber's Shrine.

HOW DO I AVOID THE RAVENS IN 3-3?

Chris Rush

You're in for a wild ride when you hang from the Turbo Cable in Level 3-3. You'll have to move up and down the cable quickly to dodge the anti-electric fields, and you'll also have to watch out for those pesky Ravens. You can actually use the big birds to your advantage, though. When you kick them, they'll bounce back against the walls. As they bounce off the walls, kick them again. If you can keep drifting them long enough, you'll earn a 1-Up, which will probably come in handy by this point.

The Turbo Cable is a roller coaster of another kind. Latch on to it and climb quickly up and down to avoid the obstacles along the way.

When you meet a Raven, keep it bouncing around between the walls and your size 13s. Keep it going long enough to earn a 1-Up.

HOW DO I DEFEAT THE ROBO-MANUS?

Boss of Level 5, the Robo-Manus is a speedy blue robot with an extendable neck. In the first phase of the attack, his neck glows only when he fires. Later, his neck glows all the time. You'll have to punch or kick him about 50 times to reduce him to spare parts. During phase one, he shoots one high laser then two low ones. Stand still to avoid the high shot, then jump over the low ones and punch or kick him repeatedly. When his neck starts glowing all the time, he'll fire a single low laser followed by a high shot. The high shot will fly over your head as long as you don't jump before it passes by. After it flies by, jump over the low one and continue to punch and kick until he's a basket case.

The Robo-Manus, boss of Level 5, has a long neck that stretches and retracts. Watch it.

Stand still to avoid the high-laser shots. If you try to jump too soon, you'll be hit.

When the Robo-Manus fires low shots, jump over them and attack him with kicks or punches.

Raya Systems teamed with Novo Nordisk Pharmaceuticals, the world's largest manufacturer of insulin, to produce Captain Novolin, the first game of its kind. Recognizing that video games are a big part of most kids' lives, they set out to make a game that would not only teach kids how to cope with their diabetes but also entertain them in the process. Kids diagnosed with diabetes have to learn volumes of information about monitoring their blood sugar levels and controlling them using insulin and good eating habits. Captain Novolin makes learning all of that critical information easier—and a lot more fun—than traditional, non-interactive methods.

Captain Novolin is a buff superhero who also happens to have diabetes. When aliens land on Mount Wayupihar, he's the one who sets out to hunt them down, and the people's safety depends on him—and on his health. Kids learn about handling the condition by following the superhero on the adventure, making him eat the right foods and helping him assess his blood sugar and administering insulin as necessary. If they fail, so does the Captain, so they have to steer him around sugary junk food and feed him only what will keep him strong, fit and feeling good. By keeping Captain Novolin in the green zone, players also learn what they need to do to keep themselves healthy.

RAY SYST

With its series of Health Hero games, Raya Systems reaches out to put some fun in learning how to cope with diabetes and other conditions that affect kids and adults alike. Captain Novolin and Rex Ronan—Experimental Surgeon are just two of the several titles Raya plans to bring to the Super NES to address contemporary health issues from a new and interactive angle.

HE CUE!

Rex Ronan—Experimental Surgeon is the first in a series that Raya plans to use to address the issue of substance abuse. Rex takes on tobacco and goes to unusual lengths to try to reverse the effects of smoking. By tagging along on Rex's adventure, players see firsthand how smoking damages the body.

The story line has Rex, a brilliant surgeon, being shrunk to microscopic size so he can journey into the body of tobacco salesman Jake Westboro and reverse the damage caused by years of smoking. In side-scrolling action and behind-the-controls flying stages, Rex uses his clearing laser to remove the plaque, tar, phlegm and cancerous cells from Jake's embattled body. The action starts when Rex and his tiny ship are placed on Jake's tongue. From there, they travel through the mouth, down the trachea and through the lungs, bronchial tubes, heart and arteries before going on to the brain, where Rex takes on the most difficult problem of all, Nicotine Addiction. Players must learn what kinds of damage to look for in the different parts of the body, and they must make quick decisions based on their knowledge of the effects of smoking.

Rex Ronan—Experimental Surgeon is a new, fast-paced way to look at the effects of smoking, and like Captain Novolin, the game also has an option that lets players choose either English, French or Spanish screen text.

FUN AND FACTS GO HAND IN HAND

You might wonder how Raya Systems became involved in producing games based on health-related issues. President and founder Steve Brown originally worked in supplying more traditional software applications to medical companies. It became clear to him in his contact with those companies that there was a real need for a new way to deliver important medical information to kids.

Children diagnosed with diabetes are a case in point. "They have to learn so much to stay healthy," Brown observed. Also recognizing that video games were hot items with kids, he thought that applying them as learning tools was a natural pairing of fun and facts.

When he talked with officials at Novo Nordisk Pharmaceuticals, he met Erik Jensen, whose son was an avid player of Super NES games. He thought Brown's ideas would work, and the pharmaceutical giant signed on to help fund the production of Captain Novolin.

"How do we get the message across but still have it look and feel like a regular game?"

Brown knew computer software, of course, but was relatively new to Super NES games. He set out to learn everything he could about them, buying up every Super NES game his local video store had on hand. And he started playing.

After playing until his eyes hurt, Brown started forming his first ideas for Captain Novolin. He realized that creating a successful game would be a challenge, and wondered, "How do we get the message across but still have it look and feel like a regular game?"

Although Raya employs programmers of its own, the company went to what Brown referred to as "the industry pros," Sculptured Software, for development of Captain Novolin. Sculptured Software, known for developing stand-out games such as NCAA Basketball, Super Star Wars and Super Empire Strikes Back, took on the project. Sculptured, too, realized that it would be a challenge to make a game that was fun to play but still delivered the information so vital to the health of the players with diabetes.

What evolved was super hero Captain Novolin on his quest to rid the city of aliens and rescue the mayor. The game's main strategy is in using the knowledge gained in introductory cinema sequences to eat the proper amounts of the right kinds of food. Captain Novolin must defeat the aliens and save the mayor, who also has diabetes. Since he's been without insulin for two days, Captain Novolin must determine what his blood-sugar level is and provide proper treatment.

The game has been a big hit with the kids who've played and learned from it. According to John Rutenburger, formerly "Cliff" from NBC's "Cheers" and a celebrity volunteer for the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, "Not only is this game really fun, but it helps kids learn a lot about managing their diabetes."

"Not only is this game fun, but it really helps kids learn a lot about managing their diabetes."

ACCURACY COUNTS FOR RAYA SYSTEMS AND SCULPTURED SOFTWARE

In addition to the funding provided by Novo Nordisk Pharmaceuticals, research grants from the National Institutes of Health have helped make the Health Hero games possible. Raya Systems has also worked closely with Stanford University to help ensure accuracy and educational value.

Sculptured Software shares Raya Systems' commitment to accuracy. Jeff Peters, Production Manager and Director of Rex Roman-Experimental Surgeon, said that he'd never seen so many medical books in his life. He and his development team studied the effects of smoking on every part of the body before determining the route that the miniaturized medic would take through the diseased body. When asked what he'd learned in preparing for the project, Peters responded, "I think I could just about do brain surgery now!"

When first approached about handling the project, Peters said that he was intrigued, but he, too, thought that it would be difficult to create a game that would be both fun and educational. Since players traditionally play for fun rather than "work," the trick, in his mind, was to make a fun game that taught something valuable without players realizing that they were learning.

Rex Roman incorporates plenty of the action that video gamers are accustomed to. When the development team tested the game in focus groups, they found it to be a hit with gamers in the five- to twelve-year-old target audience—and they found that they learned a lot, too.

Raya Systems has other projects in the works, too, including Bronkie the Bronchitisaurus, which is coming for the Super NES in 1994 to teach kids self-management skills for dealing with asthma, and The AIDS Avenger, which sends players on a mission to correct misconceptions about HIV and AIDS.

Splat the Safety Cat, another Super NES game in the works, stars cool, clever Splat, who navigates a world full of obstacles and hazards that children face daily.

If funding comes through, the company hopes to produce even more games focusing on health and social issues. Captain Novolin was introduced last summer at Diabetes Camps across the country to kids who were amazed that there was a game just for them. Raya Systems now hopes to produce a second diabetes game (tentatively titled Camp Insulin). And Shawn Valdez, an eight-year-old boy who attended Paul Newman's Hole in the Wall Gang Camp for children with life-threatening illnesses, is the inspiration for another possible game about dealing with leukemia. He described his dreams for a game that let him fight leukemia cells in I Will Sing: Voices From the Hole in the Wall Gang Camp. Thanks to Raya Systems, some kids with special medical needs are having their dreams come true.

An NES Favorite Returns

Back in 1989 the NES classic, Tetris, was released, and people have been intrigued ever since. This year brings us the long awaited sequel, Tetris 2.

Welcome to advanced Tetris 201.
I am your professor, Dr. Izomon.

Three Great Ways To Play

Tetris 2 has three different play modes. First, there's the One-Player Mode, which you can play for high scores or just to practice your technique. The second mode is Player vs. Players, which delivers frantic head-to-head puzzle action at its best! And finally, there is the Player vs. CPU Mode that lets you test your speed and wits against the computer.

ONE-PLAYER

In the One-Player Mode, you'll learn all about how to rotate and drop a whole new set of Tetris pieces. This time, the objective is different. Instead of trying to complete lines, you'll try to line up three or more blocks of the same color in a horizontal or vertical line. Your goal is to get rid of the Flashing Blocks, which are usually near the bottom of the screen, and progress to the next level. When you line up chain reactions, you can rack up a high score.

PLAYER VS. PLAYER

If you've ever played Dr. Mario's Two-Player Mode, you know how intense a two-player puzzle game can be. In the Player vs. Player Mode, your good moves can really mess up your opponent's playing field. If you drop more than one set of three blocks or remove a flashing block from your side, you'll send a surprise package to your buddy. And if you get a Super Tetris, well more on that later.

This is our lesson plan. Please study it.

Player vs. CPU

If you're just itching for a two-player game, but there's no one around to challenge, or if you just want to practice before you take on a friend, select the Player vs. CPU Mode. It lets you hone your stacking skills by playing against the computer—and the programmers of Tetris 2 have done a great job of making your computer a worthy adversary. With three levels of computer intelligence, the CPU is smart enough to challenge players of all skill levels.

Before you start, you can assign your computer one of the three skill levels shown. You can also up the challenge by changing the starting level.

The playing screen looks just like it does in the Player vs. Player Mode. The first player—human or computer—to win three games takes the match.

Single Player Strategies

If you've played the original Tetris, you already know how to spin and drop Tetris pieces. There's more to Tetris 2 than spinning and dropping, though—now you have to match colors, too. Try the techniques shown on this page to become a Tetris 2 master.

Chain Reactions

The first step to success in Tetris 2 is learning how to trigger a Chain Reaction, which clears more than one set of blocks with a single dropped block. Chain Reactions not only result in high scoring combinations, they are also very useful for disrupting an opponent's game in the

Break 'Em Up

Some of the shapes break apart when they land. After the shape touches down, you can still maneuver the pieces that break off. If you're quick and clever, you can use those pieces to fill in small nooks and crannies that may exist deep in your play field.

Spin the tetrad counterclockwise. The red block will keep falling after the yellow and blue part lands.

Practice the basic strategies in the One-Player Mode.

Two-Player Mode: When dropping a block, try to line it up so the individual blocks will fall down onto lower blocks of the same color later.

Super Tetris!

If you can lay six blocks of the same color in a straight line, they'll disappear and you'll score a Super Tetris. This move is especially devastating in the Two-Player Mode because it makes all of the blocks of that color disappear from your playing field. Cleaning up your board can make a big difference when you're playing head-to-head.

A Super Tetris can give you a second chance!

Color Bonus

Here's a really tough stunt with a big payoff. Usually, you just need to get rid of the flashing blocks to complete a level. If you can manage to clear out all three of the flashing blocks with the same drop, you'll earn a special color bonus. This is extra credit material, for sure. If you can pull this one off, give yourself an A+!

The Color Bonus really boosts your score!

Thirty-something

On the Level Selection screen, you can choose the level you want to start with. Although you can choose only up to Level 30, there are still more levels to go through in the One-Player Mode. After you finish Level 30, you'll see a cinema scene that shows a man on the moon with a little blue orb, then the game will restart on Level 31 and the play gets really hairy. The upper levels demand total concentration.

Player vs. Player

It's a safe way to pummel your friends!

The object is the same. Try to make your opponent's pieces stack up to the top while clearing out all of the blocks on your side. Remember that every time you pull off a radical move, it can really make a mess of your competitor's play field. Work as quickly as you can—the play can get fast and furious in short order.

If you've played Dr. Mario in the Two-Player Mode, you'll feel right at home playing Tetris 2 head-to-head.

Quick Drop

If you create a Chain Reaction by eliminating more than one set of three blocks in one drop, you'll send one or more pieces plummeting on your opponent's side of the screen. It's possible for your opponent to rotate the pieces as they fall, but they move so fast that it's really tough. If you practice setting up Chain Reactions in the One-Player Mode, you'll be armed and dangerous.

Watch Yourself

It can be tempting to look at the other side of the screen to survey the damage you're doing, but if you do, it's very possible that you'll miss your next golden opportunity.

If you lose your concentration, even for a block or two, the pieces will really start to pile up. It all also helps ignore colors and fill holes!

You're catching on!

Player vs. Computer

When you want to play a two-player game but no one else is around (or if you're so good that no one wants to play against you), the next best thing is to play against the computer in the Player vs. CPU Mode. It has three different difficulty levels, so there is plenty of challenge, even for a Tetris 2 expert!

Test your wits against the computer!

Line Up Colors For Chain Reactions

Look at the colors of the blocks that are in the rows under the spot where you're placing the current block. Plan ahead and line up colors vertically so that they will eliminate the blocks below when they fall. Watch the blocks disappear—and listen to your opponent howl as they resurface on the other side of the screen.

Chain Reactions Revisited

Probably the most important skill for Tetris 2 players to master is putting together Chain Reactions. They're the key to high scores and clean screens. Not only do they score you lots of points in the One-Player Mode, but they also make strong offensive moves when used in the Player vs. Player Mode. Line 'em up, and let 'em drop!

NHL STANLEY CUP

Company ..... Nintendo
Suggested Retail Price ..... $49.95
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 16 Megabits

Ice hockey so real it's cold. Take a look at the stats behind the game play in this month's special sports report.

➤ Exceptional graphics and realism of play. All the options you want including season play, play-offs, instant replay, penalties on/off and a battery to save it all

❑ The perspective isn't easy to master. The skating motion, although realistic, makes getting to the puck tougher than in more basic video hockey games. Limited substitution of players

BATTLE CARS

Company ..... Namco
Suggested Retail Price ..... $59.95
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 8 Megabits

➤ Intense, high speed action with some cool moves. Multiple player options.

❑ The graphics of the cars could be clearer. Some goals aren't very clear.

INSPECTOR GADGET

Company ..... Hudson Soft
Suggested Retail Price ..... $59.95
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 8 Megabits
Game Type ..... Comic action for one player

The mechanized sleuth of television fame brings a sense of humor and a lot of fun game play to the Super NES. Gadget must save his niece, who has been kidnapped, and to do it he must use every trick (or gadget) in the book. His assortment of nutty gear includes grappling hooks, punching glove arms and many more handy items that you pick up along the way.

- A fun, challenging game with some humor thrown in - Controlling Gadget's items isn't always easy. Gadget can't take many hits, so the challenge can be frustrating.

SUNSET RIDERS

Company ..... Konami
Suggested Retail Price ..... Between $49-$59
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 8 Megabits
Game Type ..... Arcade shooting action

The popular arcade shooter featuring a side-scrolling view of the Old West moseys into town this month from Konami. There's more action here than you'd find in Dodge City on a Friday night after a stage coach robbery, and everyone is shooting at you. The idea of the game is that you shoot back, then shoot back some more.

- Lots of action with some frontier humor to boot
- The animation is disappointing and the game has very little depth.

SKYBLAZER

Company ..... Sony Imagesoft
Suggested Retail Price ..... $39.95
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 8 Megabits
Game Type ..... Side-scrolling action for one player

Fans of action games like Ninja Garden should take note of Skyblazer from Sony Imagesoft. You have good control of the hero character and lots of moves like the ability to cling to and climb walls.

- Excellent play control and good moves

- The story is nothing you haven't heard before, and the graphics are good but uninspired. Not challenging enough, although fun while it lasts.

PINK GOES TO HOLLYWOOD

Company ..... TecMagik
Suggested Retail Price ..... $64.95
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 8 Megabits
Game Type ..... Comic Action

The Pink Panther springs into action in this inventive game from TecMagik. Pink makes his way through movie sets, picking up power-ups that he pulls from his magic hat, like an instant bridge for crossing wide gaps or a hole in which enemies can vanish. The most intriguing part of this game, however, is that you must explore to find all sorts of hidden levels within levels. For instance, in a kitchen area you can go into a refrigerator that seems like part of the background. Once inside the fridge, you can go inside a turkey on the bottom shelf where you'll find yet another stage.

- Excellent music and graphics plus lots of hidden levels and items
- Using Pink's magic items is often awkward

CLAY FIGHTERS

Company ..... Interplay
Suggested Retail Price ..... Not Available
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 16 Megabits
Game Type ..... Comic street fighting action for two players

Everyone from Elvis to the Blob wants to get into the street fighting scene in this claymation classic from Interplay. This month's review shows you the hot moves and gives you a look at how the clay figures came to life.

- Fun graphics and play. Exceptional music and sound with full vocals on the intro song
- A fairly quick play against the computer. It's the most fun in the two-player mode.

Game Type	Historical strategy

The classic game of strategy, politics, economics and war makes its Super NES debut. In your efforts to defeat your untrustworthy neighbors, or at least stay alive, you'll have to control your resources, make diplomatic overtures and wage war when all else fails.

• Lots of strategic game play and challenge. Super Nobunaga has a battery save feature and Super NES Mouse compatibility, which is the best way to play it.

• The graphic menu icons are confusing.

WORLD HEROES

Release Date	November 1993
Memory Size	16 Megabits
Game Type	Fighting action for two players

Another arcade street fighter comes to the Super NES. Oh joy!

• Good graphics with some cool moves. Definitely one of the better street fighting titles.

• There's nothing new here, but if you're a World Heroes fan, that's probably good news.

TOTAL CARNAGE

Company	Malibu

The ghost of Smash TV returns on this futuristic battlefield where you must survive hordes of gun-toting attackers. One or two players can face the onslaught and mow them down with a great arsenal that includes anti-mutant rockets, defensive spikes and more cool sci-tech Power-Ups.

- Good graphics and fast, constant action for one or two players.
- The aiming control takes a while to get used to. Not much different from Smash TV.

• Mediocre graphics and not a lot of variety of play.

OUT TO LUNCH

Company	Mindscape
Suggested Retail Price	$64.95
Release Date	December 1993
Memory Size	8 Megabits
Game Type	Action

You'll begin your culinary adventure in Switzerland and move on to exotic locales like China and the jungle where you'll have to collect a wide assortment of reluctant food stuffs. There are many stages within each country, and the game gets progressively more difficult. Each stage is timed and, as you'll soon learn, the food can bite back if you're not careful.

Fun graphics and music

The challenge may not keep players engaged

WE'RE BACK: A DINOSAUR'S STORY

Company Hi-Tech Expressions
Suggested Retail Price $59.95
Release Date December 1993
Memory Size 8 Megabits
Game Type Action

The cartoon dinosaurs of the Spielberg movie star in this five-stage Super NES action game. In this traditional scrolling platform game, you'll be able to run, jump, swipe your tail at enemies, throw things and collect Power-Ups of various kinds. You can also use Elsa, Wop and Dweeb—your dino friends—once you've found them.

These dinosaurs won't scare the daylight out of you like those in Jurassic Park. The theme is more suitable to young players.

Poor play control and repetitive play make it a tiresome journey

STEEL TALONS

Company Left Field
Suggested Retail Price $49.99
Release Date December 1993
Memory Size 4 Megabits
Game Type Air combat for one or two players

Once you join the elite helicopter gunship squadron known as the Steel Talons, you'll take off on dangerous missions behind enemy lines in this 3-D flight sim. The 12 missions generally involve penetrating enemy airspace and blasting everything in sight with machine guns and missiles. This game also features an Expert Mission and a Training Mission for getting started.

A two-player option allows a second player to take over the position of gunner

The blocky graphics aren't impressive. Control of the chopper is rough

SUPER BATTLESHIP

Company Mindscape
Suggested Retail Price $59.95
Release Date December 1993
Memory Size 8 Megabits
Game Type Combat strategy

You are in charge of a small fleet in each Super Battleship scenario. You're usually outgunned, so you have to make clever use of your ships. When you fire guns, the screen becomes a side-angle view where you aim at the enemy on the horizon line. Missiles can be controlled directly in a Mode 7, fly-by-wire sequence. You can even play a one-man version of the classic game of Battleship.

A unique approach combining some strategy and some action. Some fun graphics and sound effects.

The action element requires only simple skills and the strategy element may not satisfy hard-core strategy players

BIOMETAL

Company Activision
Suggested Retail Price $59.95
Release Date December 1993
Memory Size 8 Megabits
Game Type Space shooter

You must pilot the galaxy's top fighter to save the world. Expect realistic looking backgrounds as the Halford fighter wings its way through countless enemy BioMetals. BioMetal doesn't cover any new ground, but it does a good job of going where shooters have gone before.

Good graphics and play control

No innovation and medium challenge

Release Date December 1993

Lots of variety and options that make the game great for one- or multi-player sessions

The controls for setting up shots and some views are awkward

METAL COMBAT

Company ..... Nintendo
Suggested Retail Price ..... $49.95
Release Date ..... November
Memory Size ..... 8 Megabits
Game Type ..... Super Scope combat

Climb aboard your ST (Standing Tank) and enter the brutal sporting action of the future with Metal Combat. Check out our Super Scope round-up to focus on all the new features.

- A much-improved sequel to Battleclash. The two-player option offers some unique fun play.
- It can be difficult seeing enemy shots. The challenge of the one-player game is a bit weak.

THE REN & STIMPY SHOW: BUCKEROOS

Company ..... THQ
Suggested Retail Price ..... $44.95
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 2 Megabits
Game Type ..... Comic action

The weirdest pair on TV is back for another video game adventure. In fact, Ren and Stimpy actually have adventures in three locales: the Old West, Sherwood Forest, and Outer Space. If you're expecting hilarious barrel-rolling antics, go watch your cat. This is basic action, just jumping and shooting.

- The graphics capture the artistic flavor of the cartoon series.
- Play control is poor and many of the game elements aren't engaging.

BONK'S ADVENTURE

Company ..... Hudson Soft
Suggested Retail Price ..... Not Available
Release Date ..... December 1993
Company ..... Nintendo
Memory Size ..... 3 Megabits
Game Type ..... Action

- Unusual play with inventive stages.
- Play control isn't as sharp as the Game Boy version of Bonk.

MEGA MAN VII

Company ..... Capcom
Suggested Retail Price ..... Not Available
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 4 Megabits
Game Type ..... Action

The Blue Bomber's sixth trip to the NES may be his best. This month, Power focuses on the latest action.

- Excellent graphics, play control and challenge.
- The only real weakness is the lack of originality.

TETRIS 2

Company ..... Nintendo
Suggested Retail Price ..... $39.95
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 2 Megabits
Game Type ..... Puzzle Action

Let the blocks fall where they may... NOT! The latest action puzzle with falling blocks may give you brain lock. To avoid that, check out the tips in this month's review.

- Great challenge for one or two players.
- Plain graphics and unengaging play that doesn't vary greatly from Tetris or Dr. Mario.

MEGA MAN IV

Company ..... Capcom
Suggested Retail Price ..... Not Available
Release Date ..... December 1993
Memory Size ..... 4 Megabits
Game Type ..... Action

Mega Fun for action fans. Check out this month's review of the fourth Mega Man game for Game Boy.

- Fun and simple.
- The graphics are dark and can be unclear.

Suggested Retail Price: Not Available
Release Date: December 1993
Memory Size: 2 Megabits

run, jump and throw items at your enemies while the clock counts down.

Good graphics

Peer play control and challenge

CLAYMATES

INTERPLAY

More clay is on the way from Interplay. Although Claymates was first reported by Pak Watch more than a year ago, the Super NES game featuring Interplay's claymation characters is only now finishing up in development, and what a finish it is turning out to be! This Game Pak really packs in the game play for one or two players in the alternating mode. As you progress through a given stage, you begin as an unmod-ed ball of clay. When you pick up a colored ball, you'll transform into one of five clay critters: a mouse, a gopher, a cat, a bird or a fish. Each of the characters has special abilities that allow it to get through a certain area or reach one of the dozens of hidden areas in the game. Besides terrific graphics and good play control, Claymates boasts tons of hidden items. Because there's always something new to discover, this Pak Padre never tires of the play, even when having to repeat a stage.

Claymates also contains puzzle games between the action stages. In an overhead view you have to manipulate some objects to get past an obstacle. You'll also find bonus areas. To wrap it all up, the music and sound effects are excellent in a clownish, slapstick way, adding to the sense that you're off on a nutty adventure.

PIRATES OF DARK WATER

SUNSOFT

Cartoon and adventure fans, grab your swords. The Pirates of Dark Water has finally shown up at the Pak Watch desk and the game is scheduled to walk the plank early next year. The story line of this eight-level action game remains true to the cartoon as the heroes search for 13 lost treasures while being plagued by a pirate named Bloth. The graphics convey a sense of dark adventure. This Pak Pirate was pleased to see that the game has an option for two-player simultaneous action. Although most of the areas feature side-scrolling action along the lines of Double Dragon, the three characters—Ren, Tula and Izo—can use martial arts moves as well as weapons and magic. The game also includes some flying and shooting stages to add to the variety. From caves and jungles to Bloth's evil pirate ship, The Pirates of Dark Water covers a lot of ground...and sea.

X-KALIBER 2097

ACTIVISION

Activision gave us a first look at X-Kaliber, a cyberpunk action game featuring street action with a super sword that fires bolts of energy. Your Pak Punks are always into futuristic justice and mayhem, but X-Kaliber has a second cool feature—a two-player challenge mode in which you can battle your friends. The story is about an incorruptible agent in Neo New York, circa A.D. 2097 who must fight an army of mutants and shape-shifting morphs commanded by a warlord. All you have is your trusty sword to help you through the six levels. Your sword moves include thrust, parry and swipe, plus it can shoot energy across the screen. With music from Psykosonik, X-Kaliber seems to capture a lot of the atmosphere of a dark techno-future.

FIGHTER STICK SN

ASCIIWARE

Asciiware sent their most recent Super NES controller to Pak Watch for a test drive and this Stick Watcher was impressed. First off, the new Asciiware Fighter Stick SN is super solid. It has the weight and the smooth action that will stand the test of time no matter how hard you wail on the thing. Second, it's got all sorts of great gummies like independent turbo for every button, auto turbo and slow motion. With the turbo power cranked, you'll unleash up to 36 punches per second. That's playing with power. The button configuration is a bit different, as you can see in the photo, and it took a little getting used to, especially trying to find the Start and Select buttons way up there on top of the controller. The Fighter Stick should be available now for a suggested retail price of $49.95.

WINTER OLYMPIC GAMES

U.S. GOLD

The games haven't begun in Lillehammer, Norway, quite yet, but when they do, you'll be able to try out many of the Olympic sports in this Super NES game from U.S. Gold. Your Pak Participants strapped on skis and skates and sliced down mountains via bobsled and luge. Skiing events included downhill, slalom, ski jumping, biathlon (shooting and cross-country) and freestyle. The luge and bobsled courses place you in the sled in a wild 3-D ride that may remind you (at least while you're learning) of the Jamaican bobsled team. Ya, man, it's cool running. Winter Olympic Games lets you compete in a tournament that includes every event, or you can practice your favorite events, trying to set a record in the downhill or the ski jump course. Although the events are individual, you can hold tournaments with three friends in your own mini Olympics. Winter Olympic Games should be out by the opening ceremonies.

CHOPLIFTER III

EXTREME

This hit arcade game from Extreme moved into view the other day and your Pak Pilot immediately took to the air for some challenging rescue missions over hostile territory. The graphics looked good and play control felt tight. The missions consist of destroying enemy troops and equipment, dodging incoming shots and missiles and picking up prisoners. Rough terrain and lots of anti-aircraft fire combine for a good challenge.

Once you rescue enough POWs, you'll move on to the next, tougher mission. You're also able to pick up lots of new missiles and extra weapons that boost your arsenal tremendously.

MICKEY'S ULTIMATE CHALLENGE

HI-TECH

Mickey's Challenge is five different games in one, each linked by a common story and adventure-like interface. Mickey or Minnie (take your pick) travels to the Kingdom of Beanwick, a magical place inhabited by Disney characters. The mini games include several types of puzzle and memory games. One involves remembering patterns of sounds while in another you must remember the order of items. Good music and animation help bring the interface alive, but the games are designed for players five years old and up, and the adventure element is limited to mov-

CHIP 'N DALE RESCUE RANGERS 2

CAPCOM

Chip and Dale are back for more adventure in this Disney action romp from Capcom. Your Pak Watcher expected a sequel similar to the original NES Rescue Rangers game, and that's exactly what he got. Using Chip or Dale, you squirrel through multiple side-scrolling stages both inside and outside. There are enemies, puzzles and lots of stuff to throw. Although these didn't seem to be anything radically new in the game, the control seemed excellent and the play was always fast and fun, just what you'd expect from Capcom.

SPIDER-MAN & X-MEN: REVENGE

ACCLAIM

Once we popped this Pak into the Game Boy, it became immediately clear that Peter Parker, a.k.a. Spider-Man, is looking better than ever. Fans of the Super NES version of Spider-Man and the X-Men will recognize the play in this small-screen version. If you're more familiar with previous Game Boy Spider-Man games, however, you're in for a welcome surprise. Play control and graphics are both improved in this game. Using the web-shot is no longer a chore and the game has a lot of variety, from fighting to figuring out how to work through mazes. Look for Spidey early this winter.

TMNT III: RADICAL RESCUE

KONAMI

The best Turtles game yet for Game Boy is on its way. This Pak Watcher was impressed by Radical Rescue's graphics and game play. Controlling Michelangelo (and the bros. once you rescue them) players have free scrolling access to every area of a stage, and the stages are big places where you must explore, fight lots of enemies and collect Power-Up pizzas among other things. In the story, three of the Turtles charge off to save

April while Michelangelo returns with pizza. Now, not only April needs saving, but Raph, Don and Leonardo, too. Look for this game in January along with Batman: The Animated Series.

PAK WATCH UPDATE

Speedy Gonzales will move up from Game Boy to a Super NES version next year as Sunsoft continues its cartoon crusade to convert every Looney Tunes character into great gaming action. Word from Sunsoft is that after Bugs and Speedy, Porky Pig may be next. In the opposite direction, Taz has been made into a Game Boy game after beginning life as a Super NES title. Taz should be out early next year along with the awesome looking Bugs Bunny Rabbit Rampage.

Some pretty haunting Super NES games are on the way for '94, including a Super NES version of the popular board game, Nightmare, and a game based on the movie, Warlock. Less frightening, but just as fun, will be Konami's Super NES version of Batman: The Animated Series. At this time the game is only in the earliest stages of development and no screen shots are available, but your Pak Hounds will track down info as soon as it is available.

A game that is guaranteed not to scare anyone is coming from TecMagik and stars the famous cartoon pair of Sylvester and Tweety. Also in the weeks at TecMagik are Andre Agassi Tennis and a Steven Seagal fighting game that uses digitized figures similar to Mortal Kombat.

Other Super NES news includes an update from Sony Imagesoft on its ESPN series of games. Originally, Sony wanted to release the games by this month, but development felt a bit behind. Sports fans will be pleased to hear, however, that the Football and Baseball games are back on track and should be on the shelf as the first half of '94.

Troy Aikman Football won't be coming out as soon as anticipated. Tradewest wants to polish the game as much as possible before releasing it. This Pak Watcher applauds that kind of thinking, especially when the game already looks like a winner. Incidentally, Tradewest and Troy Aikman really did get together to develop this game, as can be seen in the snapshot they sent us. Apparently the Super Bowl-winning quarterback is a major video game fan.

Game Boy news this month includes a soon-to-be-released racing game from Ubi Soft, F-1 Pole Position, which features a two-player Game Link option for racing around the world. Ubi is also getting close to completion on Tip-Off and John Madden Football, both of which should appear by March.

Kemco has announced the development of a game starring the Stone Protectors characters. The new action figures have been doubling sales in recent months over such heavyweights as the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles.

Game Boy isn't the only video game system on the go thanks to Nintendo's Gateway System, a commercial version of the Super NES that has already been installed on several Northwest Airlines 747 jetliners and which will soon be found in more jets, hotels, and cruise ships. Developed by Nintendo's R&D group in Redmond, the system offers travelers a chance to choose from ten Super NES games, movies, audio CD, shopping and informational services.

Speaking of games on the go, your Pik Watcher boarded a train in New York last August along with twenty journalists and Game Boy fans to partake in the first ever cross-country video game contest. From New York to Seattle, the contestants fought the Nightmares of Link's Awakening. The gamers could buy info in exchange for Ruppees, but most of them were so involved that they didn't even ask for the time of day. Talk about game crazy. Deprived of their Game Boys during a brief layover in Chicago, many of the contestants ran off to Battletech for a quick video war. In the end, Nintendo World Champion Jeff Hansen took the honors by reaching the Wind Fish first. As you can see, some contestants, like Warp Magazine's Mike Chantry, wouldn't put down their Game Boys for anything.

Howard Phillips, former Nintendo Fan Club President, has moved on from T*HQ to start up a new development team for Absolute in Redmond, Washington. Howard will be working closely with Absolute's West Coast programming group headed by David Crane. Absolute opened another new development office in Baltimore with former Microprose programmer, Paul Coletta.

Mortal Kombat fans can pick up some free tips from Acclaim by requesting a copy of The Pit. This newsletter contains information on characters and answers the most popular questions about Mortal Kombat. You can also order MK merchandise. For a free copy, write to: The Pit, P.O. Box 9005, Oyster Bay, NY 11771.

The Starlight Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to granting the wishes of seriously ill children, held a fund raising evening in October and Nintendo licensee TecMagik was on hand to help the effort. There was a carnival, lots of games and entertainment and celebrities such as Mel Gibson and Emma Samms. The Pink Panther, star of TecMagik's Pink Goes To Hollywood and the official mascot of the Starlight Foundation, was on hand to meet hundreds of kids at the event.
